SUPER MARKET TO BE FIRST PROJECT UNIT

$15 Million Town And Country Center

Work was underway today on a super market in Westlake, the first unit of Henry Doelger's $15 million Town and Country center.

The work was started only a few minutes after ground breaking ceremonies last Friday. Attending the dedication were officials of the Westlake organization and many Daly City civic leaders.

Following the ground breaking ceremonies, a luncheon was held for Doelger at which time he was praised for his foresight in bringing homes and a commerical center to a district that no more than a year ago consisted of nothing but rought terrain.

Super Market

The new super market, to be located on the south side of Highway No. 1 in the center of Westlake, will be leased and operated by Vincent J. Nevelo. Equipped with the finest refrigeration and service facilities, the market will cover an area of 120 by 192 feet.

There will be departments for meats, fruits, vegetables, fish, poultry, groceries and other supplies.

Headquarters

It will provide marketing headquarters not only for the eight hundred families now residing in Westlake but for those in adjacent communities and for future residents of the 7,000 homes and 1,100 garden apartments planned for this Town and Country Community. The stream-lined, glass enclosed

HOW IT LOOKS FROM A CORNER

By BILL KATZ

Sign of the Times

Tuesday, at 11 o'clock, the siren on city hall blasted away for a full minute. This was to mark the anniversary of the United Nations. Similar demonstrations were held throughout the country.

A few minutes after the whistle began blowing a distraught woman called the office: "Is that a fire, or a signal that war is on?" she asked.

This call, we believe, is by way of tribute to the United Nations. No, there was no war, but if it wasn't for that body of tireless men in Flushing Meadows, the siren might well have signalled the outbreak of World War III.

True, we are far from the times of lasting peace, and yet were it not for the United Nations who can say whether or not the Korean war might not have flared up into the

SWEENEY AND SONS DESCRIBE NEW STUDEBAKER COMMANDER MOTOR

The Studebaker Corporation today disclosed what its officials believe to be the most important step taken by the company since the Champion was put on the market more than a decade ago — the introduction of a new Commander series powered by a rugged, compact, V-type, 8-cylinder, valve-in-head engine, it was learned from William J. Sweeney and Sons, 6800 Mission street, representative here.

Public announcement of the new engine was made by Harold S. Vance, board chairman and president, upon the completion of dealer previews of Studebaker's 1951 models.

Vance declared that the company has invested $15,000,000 in developing the new V-8 power plant and in expanding manufacturing facilities necessary for producing it in volume.

Engine Design

The engine has been designed so as to be readily adaptable for any foreseeable boosts in compression ratios when the general availability of higher octane fuels makes such increases desirable, and to utilize the most modern machinery and manufacturing techniques in producing it. But above all, Vance explained, the Commander Eight will place Studebaker dealers in a far better competitive position in the medium price field.

"We believe the new Commander will give our dealers a chance to build up volume in the medium

MILES FROM TRACK... MAN LOSES AT HORSES

A Pacific Manor man lost at the horses last Saturday afternoon, but he was miles from a race track.

In fact, so was the horse which put in an appearance on Highway No. 1 at 5:55 p. m. as Richard A. Stevens was driving east on the road.

Neither Stevens nor the horse noticed one another until they met unexpectedly in the middle of the road. The next moment the horse was down on his knees and Stevens had his foot down to the floor on his car's brake pedal.

Fast Recovery

The horse recovered first from the accident and, completely decked out with saddle and reigns but no rider, disappeared over a hill.

Stevens would have forgotten the whole thing, but the front of his 1941 sedan was smashed in, and, besides he was worried about the horse.

A few hours later the Pacific Manor man, with the aid of police, found the horse, uninjured, in the stables of Buffalo Bill's ranch.

The rider never turned up, but Stevens found the owner of the horse is David Molinari of San Francisco.

Ill Woman Seeks Missing Sister

A plea for help in finding a missing woman came to Daly City last week.

Sought is a former resident of Oregon, one Billie Baxter, whose sister is desperately ill in Newport, Oregon.

Mrs. H. O. Miltimore of Newport, Oregon, writes that the missing woman's sister is anxious to locate her.

The ailing woman has not heard from her sister for six years and the Missing Persons Bureau has been unable to find her in San Francisco.

Seen by Friend

A friend of the missing woman's sister saw her in a San Francisco Hospital a year ago and believed she might be residing in San Francisco or in a nearby locality.

The sister in Newport presently is inquiring of the woman's whereabouts in towns in the bay area.

The young woman is a former waitress and it is presumed that she may be doing similar work now. Her social security number in Oregon was 544-20-4176.

Description

She is described as five feet eight inches tall, with reddish auburn hair and very dark brown eyes. Relatives indicate she has a coarse voice for a woman and is left handed.

Any information regarding the whereabouts of the missing woman should be reported to the Daly City Police or by mail to Mrs. H. O. Miltimore, 1142 N. Hurbert St., Newport, Oregon.

SF Youth Charged With Church Theft

A church means many things to many people, but 18-year-old Spencer McDonald of San Francisco saw only one thing in the Colma Holy Angels Church Monday afternoon.

Hat in hand, the youth walked into the church and direct to the poor box. Looking around to see no one was watching, McDonald allegedly opened the box and lifted $30.92.

His reasoning was simple. As he later explained, "I just needed the money."

The story might have ended there but by "chance," another gentleman was entering the church as McDonald was leaving. That man was Sgt. Otto Schramm of the State Highway Patrol.

Later, at the Daly City police department, Schramm gave a simple reason for picking up McDonald, "He just looked suspicious."

CITY OFFICIALS RETURN FROM L. A.

City councilmen were back in city hall today after spending almost a week in Los Angeles.

No, the boys weren't on vacation...they were taking part in the Fifty-second annual meeting of the League of California Cities. Delegates from every community in the state were present at the convention in Los Angeles.

Councilmen, and City Administrator Orrin Wendling, claim they learned much at the conclave which will help them as "pilots" of city affairs.

Lions Club Calls For Toys, Clothes To Aid Santa Claus

Now is the time to insure the kids of this community a happy, toy filled Christmas.

So say mmebers of the Daly City Lions club who, with an eye on the calendar, this week launched their annual toy and clothing Christmas drive.

Purpose of the drive is to collect toys and clothing for those children who otherwise might not be visited by Santa Claus come December 25.

Good Job

Last year the Lions warmed the hearts of children in seven families. This Christmas they wish to double the number helped... but they need your assistance.

Look around the house today, not tomorrow. See if there are not some toys which can be fixed up with a little time and paint. If you have any such toys, bring them to the Lions, or call and a truck will pick them up.

The same goes for clothing which a child might still use to good purpose.

Collecting Points

The toys and clothes may be brought to the Daly City Theatre, Neville's Ford Motor company or the Daly City Cleaners. And bring them today, so the Lions may start working on them immediately.

In case you are unable to get to any of the three aforesaid places call Hal Wilis at PLaza 5-5261 and the Lions will pick up your contributions.

This year's committee in charge of the Christmas event includes: Willis, Dan Andersen and Walter Rector.

COLMA HORSES ENTER

San Mateo county will be well represented in the 1950 Grand National Livestock Exposition at the Cow Palace October 27 to November 5.

There will be 31 county exhibitors in the show. Of these, two will be entered in the Horse Show exhibition from Colma. Representing Colma will be horses owned by George Olmo and Roy Delucchi.

LIBRARY OWES DEBT TO ADM. OFFICER

During the past four weeks the Daly City Record has attempted to bring before the public the 10-year-old problem of their Daly City Library.

There has been a small response, but those community interested citizens who did reply expressed interest in alleviating the "housing shortage" at their library.

One of these citizens is Orrin Wendling, the city's new, capable city administrative officer. Although Wendling has been with the city only a short time he has demonstrated that he took a job not only to draw down a paycheck, but also to do his best to help the community at large.

In his effort to better the city he has promised that at least temporary aid will be given the Daly City library. He has indicated that in the not too distant future the kiddies of Daly City will be able to use the juvenile room of the library without tripping over each other's heels. He has said that space will be available for the many new books that now must be kept in boxes for lack of shelves.

This is not to put Wendling on "a spot," as he must first receive the green light from the city council. We are certain, however, that the council will agree that no better use could be made of funds than to assist a city service which serves over one-half the community.

CITY OFFICIALS INDICATE HELP DUE FOR LIBRARY

Temporary Aid Now Under Study

Indications were today that at long last the city will do something to alleviate the "housing shortage" at the Daly City library.

Following a special survey of the library last Friday, Orrin Wendling, city administrative officer, said he would do everything in his power to remedy conditions which have forced the library to keep many new books off the shelves.

Wendling indicated there was close to $4,000 in the city budget which might be used for at least temporary aid.

Although no definite plans have yet been drawn up, it is supposed that two small unused rooms will be employed as office space, and this will allow an enlargement of the present inadequate juvenile room.

No Time To Build

Wendling asserted that as the present building is inadequate, it would be a waste of funds to do any major face lifting job on the structure.

"There is no doubt that the city could use a larger, better library. However, at this time we can do little more than makeshift changes which will remedy the situation until such time as a new library can be built," Wendling said.

Also present building regulations would almost outlaw adding wings to the library, George Hopman, building inspector said.

County Officials Discuss Civilian Defense In Nov.

County and municipal officials will tackle the matter of civilian defense on the Peninsula some time this month, according to action last week in a supervisorial session at Redwood City.

Supervisor Edward R. McDonald, chairman of the board's three- man committee charged with study of a new county defense setup, told his colleagues that a "realistic" plan for Peninsula civilian defense would get impetus at the meeting of the League of California Cities in Los Angeles last Saturday.

Several representatives from Peninsula cities attended the mass meeting.

Call Meeting

L. F. Reetz, chairman of the Belmont city disaster relief council, requested that the supervisors call a meeting of all cities to frame a uniform security program.

Supervisor McDonald said, "We have been waiting for definite action by the federal and state governments down to the county level. All plans to date are tentative in nature."

Still to be appointed, he indicated, is a director of defense for the nine bay counties group, including San Mateo.

"The area plan is in formation and a meeting here in November should be able to establish the framework of the civilian defense authority," he added.

All department heads in the county presently are alerted, McDonald stated.

Police Head

Sheriff James J. McGrath is co-ordinator of all police agencies for defense in the county under the preliminary state program, and has designated Deputy Frank Marlowe to take charge. Safety of school children is in charge of Henry C. Hall, assistant county superintendent of schools.

In the November meeting, details should be molded into the final and over-all county plan.

McDonald told the board that if the authorities adopt the British pattern of civilian defense, only children and the aged will be evacuated in case of emergency to places of safety. The adult population will "stay put."

North County Council To Meet

Civilian defense will be the key topic of the North County Council of Cities which will meet in Daly City, Thursday, Nov. 2.

Guest speaker of the evening will be Admiral Albert C. Cook, USNRT, who now heads the San Francisco disaster council.

Admiral Cook is expected to give the members of the council (which includes all the cities of the northern section of San Mateo county) a few tips on how to meet the problem of a posible bombing of this area.

The meeting is to get underway at 7:30 p. m. at The Colonial.

FESTIVITIES SET FOR ALL CHILDREN IN DALY CITY

Parties To Be Held In Local Schools

All children in the Daly City area were invited to take part today in the giant Hallowe'en festival to be held in various schools Tuesday, October 31.

As in the past, there will be several community parties rather than one large city-wide party, Elman Rose, director of recreation, announced. All festivities will get underway at 7:30 p.m.

Where To Go

The Jefferson Union High School cafeteria for all youngsters above the fourth grade living in and around the neighborhood of the school; the J.U.H.S. Little Theatre for all youngsters in the third grade and under, living in and around the neighborhood of the high school. This should include the children attending Thornton and Jefferson elementary schools.

The "Teen-agers" will meet at Castle Hall . . . this includes all high school students.

The O.L.P.H. social hall will be the site for the children attending the school, and youngsters attending Crocker school who live in the vicinity of O.L.P.H. This party will include all ages.

In the northern end of the city the Peoria Scout House will accommodate the youngsters from the third grade and under living in the neighborhood of Crocker school. General Pershing elementary school will be the place for all children from the fourth grade and above living near that school.

May Change

At this writing the above locations have been decided upon by the Hallowe'en Committee, but there may be last minute changes and new places added. The school children will be issued bulletins telling them where they are to go for their particular party.

Due consideration will be given to all of those kind people who are working so hard to make these parties a success again this year. Volunteers are still welcome to help at any of the aforementioned locations. Anyone desiring to help can do so by contacting either Mrs. E. Dennis at PL 5-6277 or Erle Johnson at JUno 8-3962.

Many Prizes

Prizes will be awarded to the winners of the costume contest, which will be judged on these three features, prettiest, most novel and funniest. Awards also will be given to the various stage stunts and contests that will be held in conjunction with the parties.

Ice cream will be given to all at the close of the parties, so be on hand, boys and girls, to help us celebrate Hallowe'en at these good "old-fashioned" parties.

For further details of the abovementioned parties please contact Elman Rose at PL 5-6814 any time after 5 p.m. or at the Recreation Office from 4 to 5 any afternoon during the week by calling PL 5-0477.

The folk dancing group will have their party at Bellevue Hall. This party also will start at 7:30 p.m.

GARDEN CLUB STAGES "MAD HATTER" PARTY

Decked out in the latest hats from a la garden are these Mesdames and their husbands who, when they are not designing hats, are good members of the Daly City Garden Club. The occasion for the festivities was a recent hat party held by the club. The "mad hatters" are, left to right, first row: George Iverson, Mrs. David Bunkley, Mrs. Ervin Kramer, Mrs. Clair Yohn, Mr. Yohn, Shirl Mollette, B. K. Streeter; Mesdames Howard Maguil, Charles Hansen, Elsie Garrison, Eliza Christian, Ruth Stewart. Standing, second row: Mrs. George Iversen, Mrs. Maurice McKee. Seated, Mesdames Dick Hunter, Helen Baden, Lawrence Moore, Marcella Reynolds, Shirl Mollette and Leslie deLeon, winner of the contest.

Navy Offers School Program

The Navy assures qualified high school graduates of a course in one of its many vocational schools upon completion of their basic recruit training.

These vocational schools aren't exclusively for high school graduates. It doesn't make any difference how much education you've had . . . if you can pass the tests you can make the grade.

Suppose you're interested in aviation. If you're a high school graduate it's simple. All you do to get into naval aviation is to walk into your navy recruiting station and tell Chief Foulger, the recruiter in charge, that you want to go to Aviation Fundamentals School.

Since only the best men get chosen you will then be given various tests to find out if you're one of the best. If you pass these tests and are between 17 and under 31 years of age you will be sent to the navy's Aviation Fundamentals School as soon as you finish recruit training.

For complete information on the many vocational schools available under the High School Graduate Training Program see Chief Foulger, U. S. Navy Recruiting Substation, Post Office Building, San Mateo.

County Backing McGrath Campaign

Interest in the re-election of Sheriff James J. (Jim) McGrath at the November 7 general election is gaining momentum daily in every section of the county, according to a report today from Claude J. Hirschey, former Mayor of San Mateo, and Irving E. Kesterson, retired Atherton cattleman, who are co-chairmen of McGrath's county-wide campaign committee. Hirschey and Kesterson added that volunteer workers from every area are enlisting in the Sheriff's campaign in ever increasing numbers.

During the past week they reported Sheriff McGrath has been the guest of civic groups on the coastside, the San Mateo County Eagles, the American Association of University Women in Menlo Park, as well as community groups in Burlingame and San Bruno. The co-chairmen cited the formation of McGrath Clubs and women's precinct organizations in the south end of the county.

Both Hirschey and Kesterson declared that a recent spot check throughout the county reveals an unmistakable trend for the Sheriff's re-election. They pointed out that Sheriff McGrath's long experience, and that of his highly-trained organization are impressive factors in his favor "during this period of stress and emergency."

Girl Scouts Elect Officers

Election of officers was the main bill of fare at last Tuesday's joint meeting of the Daly City Girl Scouts of Troops No. 3 and No. 4.

Also at the meeting plans were made for the graduation of Troop No. 3 intermediates into the senior troop.

A dinner was planned for November 14.

Members partook of refreshments during the meeting.

DRIVE FOR SAFETY

When you drive, think what an accident can do, and think what you can do to prevent it, urges the California State Automobile Association in a reminder that "accidents are avoidable and alertness avoids accidents."

price field comparable to what has been accomplished with the Champion in the low price field," Vance said.

In reviewing the policies behind the new Commander Eight, Vance declared: "Anyone familiar with the recent history of the automobile business knows that prior to the introduction of the Champion, Studebaker's sales were restricted to the medium price field. We were determined to get away from that situation and did so in 1939 when we came out with our Champion which gave us a chance to tap the low price field where the bulk of automobile sales is concentrated.

It's New

"Now we are introducing a brand new Commander Eight with an eye on the second largest market—the medium price field. We are confident we have a car which will give us a larger share of this very important market."

The new Studebaker V-8 engine has a rating of 120 horsepower at 4000 r.p.m. Taxable horsepower is 36.4, piston displacement is 232.6 cu. in., bore and stroke 3⅜" and 3¼", respectively. Compression ratio as released is 7 to 1.

Tests completed by Studebaker's engineering division indicate that the new Commander will maintain the outstanding reputation for fuel economy that has been established by preceding Commander models. The use of premium gasoline will not be required.

Compact

The compactness of the new engine has permitted a shortening of the overall length of the Commander to 197½" with the exception of the Land Cruiser which has an overall length of 201½".

Exterior lines of Studebaker's 1951 passenger cars not only continue the revolutionary styling introduced a year ago, but give the cars even greater overall sleekness as a result of design changes at the front and rear. Front-end styling alterations center around the new grille, "spinner," and bumper support splash shield which completely encloses the bumper support bars. Styling changes at the rear are reflected chiefly in the new trunk deck handles and re-designed tail lamps.

One-piece windshields, used heretofore by Studebaker on its postwar 5-passenger coupes, convertibles and Land Cruisers, have been adopted for the company's entire series of 1951 models. One-piece rear windows are also standard on all but the 5-passenger and business coupes.

Changes

Among the important chassis improvements are the wider rear springs which give the cars greater lateral stability. Inserted between the new four-leaf, 2½-inch springs are full-length polyethylene liners to keep out dirt and moisture and provide insulation against road noises.

Changes on the 1951 Champion include the adoption of centerpoint steering, a re-designed instrument panel, and steel jacket-enclosed steering column and gear shift lever on all but the custom series. The Champion engine, one of the most efficient in its field, reveals no major changes except for a modification of the oil pan. The generator has been stepped up from 35 to 40 amperes and radiator frontal cooling area increased by 22 sq. in.

Box - section double - flanged frames, used on all Studebaker models, remain substantially unchanged but incorporate front-end modifications to allow for the new V-8 engine and suspension. Self-adjusting, self-centering brakes, introduced by Studebaker on its early postwar cars and widely acclaimed for their contribution to brake efficiency, dependability and safety, are continued.

Parking brake handles on all models have been re-designed and mounted on the instrument board moulding to provide greater accessibility.

Studebaker's automatic transmission will be available on all models as optional equipment at extra cost. Overdrive will likewise continue as extra-cost optional equipment.

Studebaker officials point out that engineering refinements throughout the new models have permitted a weight reduction of 205 pounds on the Commander and 55 pounds on the Champion. These weight savings, officials claim, will add still further to economy, performance, and riding qualities.

war to end all wars . . . and civilization to boot.

Apology

Last week we wrote a story concerning the successful arrest of a thief, caught breaking into the County Line Market, 6002 Mission. It was only through the fast work of the police department that the burglar didn't get away with $200. We duly noted Officer August Benassini made the arrest, but failed to mention that Officer Charles Munday was also responsible for the good bit of police work. Officer Munday is a good "cop" and deserves as much credit as the other men on the force who work tirelessly to keep Daly City safe.

Courtroom

While we are on the subject of cops, there's a good book at your Daly City Library which should interest anyone who spends more than five minutes reading mysteries or listening to detective stories on the radio.

Written by that master reporter Quentin Reynolds, the non-fiction volume is entitled "Courtroom" and is the story of Samuel S. Leibowitz, one of the country's leading criminal attorneys.

It is not a pleasant book . . . it deals almost exclusively with killers and mad men . . . but it gives the layman an intelligent, factual report on our criminal courts, the men on trial, and the lawyers who defend them. More than that, however, it is the brilliant study of a man who rose to national fame when, against all odds, he went into the south and defended the nine "Scottsboro" boys, negroes unjustly charged with rape. That case has, and still is making history.

CHILD FALLS FROM CAR BUT ESCAPES INJURY

A six-year-old girl narrowly escaped serious injury Wednesday afternoon when she fell out of the rear of a moving car.

Doreen Marchi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marchi, 201 Templeton, was in the rear seat of the car driven by her mother. Playing with the door handle, the young girl suddenly pulled it the wrong way, the door swung open, and she was thrown onto the street.

As the car was moving slowly Doreen only suffered cuts and abrasions of her right knee.

building was designed by Jack Finnegan and Mogens Mogensen, A.I.A.

The modern super-market scheduled for completion about February, 1951, will be the first of ten units comprising the 40-acre Westlake Town and Country Center, designed to be the largest planned shopping and recreation center in the West.

Other units will include a medical and office building; two department stores; bank; post office; and shops of all kinds. All the buildings will be joined by covered walks and surrounded by gardens and parking space for 2,500 cars, easily accessible from all sides.

Recreation

Plans for recreational activities include a moving picture theatre; bowling alley; ballroom; restaurant; all south of the shopping section; separated from it by the only cross street to bisect the Center. Opposite these and across the central outdoor swimming pool, Westlake's non-sectarian church; tennis courts; and grounds for other sports will be built.

City, School Employes Sign Loyalty Oath

All employes of the city and the Jefferson elementary and high school districts have signed the state loyalty oath. No objection was raised by anyone.

Monday evening the employes of the school district, including all teachers, signed the oath in a mass demonstration at Jefferson High school. City employes took the oath before Judge W. J. Sweeney in city hall Tuesday.

The heart of the oath, which according to state law is now mandatory for all city and state employes to sign, reads:

"I do not advocate the violent, forceful, or otherwise unlawful overthrow of the government, and do not belong to any subversive group."

USE SPARINGLY

If your automobile is used only for occasional short runs, be sparing in use of electrical accessories, such as radio and heater, advises the California State Automobile Association. Short trips may not allow the generator to operate long enough to properly charge the battery. In some instances, an occasional battery charge at a service station may be necessary.

TIRE FFAILURE

Causes of automobile tire failure are listed by the California State Automobile Association as including improper inflation, excessive speed, sudden stops, bumping or driving over curbs, and parking on oily floors.

WISE OBSERVATION

Observe, as you drive, and make sure that you are observed by other drivers whenever you plan to turn, pass or move into another traffic lane, urges the California State Automobile Association. A well-executed arm signal attracts attention and averts an accident.

Progress Report Given On Highway Projects Now Underway In SM County

The California Highway Commission's first order of business in San Mateo county is the Bayshore Freeway.

At the present time 9.4 miles of six-lane freeway are completed and open to traffic. The total costs of this section was $10,645,200.

In addition, the Commission allotted funds in the 1951-52 fiscal year in the amount of $3,600,000 towards the construction of the open water section of the Bayshore Freeway between Sierra Point and the San Francisco county line, and 300,000 for San Mateo rights of way.

Plans are well advanced on both of these projects and it is anticipated that the open water section will be put under construction early next spring. In addition, funds in the amount of $350,000 were voted for widening the existing Bayshore between Brisbane and south county line of San Francisco during the current fiscal year as an interim measure to handle the tremendous traffic volume.

On El Camino Real, State Route 2 (U.S. 101), a contract is now under way to widen the existing three-lane highway to four lanes from Palo Alto to Sunnyvale. This project, which will cost approximately $400,000, is expected to be finished by February 1, 1951.

The inadequate sections of State Route 56 (Sign Route 1) along the coast are being progressively improved in cooperation with Joint Highway District No. 9 which includes San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Cruz counties. In 1943 the section between two miles south of Tunitas and one mile south of Lobitos, a length of 2.6 miles, was completed at a cost of $349,400. This year work was completed on a six-mile stretch from Half Moon Bay to Montara and including Frenchmen's Creek, which amounted to $644,000. A contract in the amount of $281,000 is underway for a section between one mile south of Lobitos to one mile north of Lobitos, which should be completed and opened to traffic by January 1951. The 1951-1952 budget includes a 3.50-mile extension of the above project to a point 3.4 miles north of Canada Verde Creek. This project is estimated to cost $420,000.

The main objective of the right of way expenditure of $1,600,000 in San Mateo county during the past seven and one-half years has been the acquisition of right of way required for the recently completed sections of the Bayshore Freeway.

The freeway section through the City of South San Francisco has assured that community that there will be no repetition of the serious traffic congestion which occurred along the old Bayshore Highway during the shipyard activities for World War II.

Location of the freeway opposite the San Francisco Airport was finally determined in cooperation with the City and County of San Francisco so as to run along the extreme westerly side of the proposed area to be used for expansion of the airport.

Some of the right of way which will be needed in the near future for the next section of Bayshore freeway to be constructed through the City of San Mateo has been purchased during this seven and one-half year period.

Right of way purchases in San Mateo county have also included the lands necessary for recently completed improvements of the highway running along the coast on State Route 56 through the towns of Montara, Moss Beach and Princeton.

Whitmore Opposes Gambling Law

Re-emphasizing a previous statement of ten days ago, Earl B. Whitmore, candidate for sheriff of San Mateo county, reiterated his unqualified opposition to the legalized gambling bill, Proposition 6, on the November 7 ballot.

Whitmore first assailed the gambling bill at a meeting October 16 in Menlo Park of the Menlo-Atherton Association of University Women. "Acceptance of this legalized gambling bill would create confusion and chaos which would be difficult for law enforcement agencies to cope with," Whitmore said.

Keep Out

"The situation in this state and county is bad enough as it is without inviting the gamblers from all over the nation to come here with their resultant evils of uncontrolled crime, gang wars and slayings and endanger the lives of San Mateo county's home-loving citizens," Whitmore declared.

"San Mateo county has already had one bookie slaying within the past year and we certainly do not wish to open the door to free and unrestrained gambling as this bill would certainly do.

"Secondly," Whitmore emphasized, "this bill sets up its five promoters as "czars" of a proposed gambling kingdom of California, uncontrolled and unrestricted by the executive or legislative bodies of the state and not even subject to the vote or wishes of the public for at least five years."

Vista Grande Mkt. Self Service Is Delayed A Week

Due to circumstances beyond the managers control, the Vista Grande Market, 6350 Mission st., will not be ready for self service, as announced last week. Instead, they feel sure that the new operation will start next week.

Keenly disappointed, Frank and Ray explained that it simply was imposible to get the required installations working in time. The large gondolas and deep freeze units have arrived at the store but are not hooked up, they said.

"That also has retarded all of the accompanying plans," they went on to relate. "We are changing the routine, the layout and department locations, which is a man-sized job in itself. Moreover, all of the stock has to be moved.

"Consequently, we decided that as much as we hated to do it, the best thing was to hold off for a week. We are sure that our customers will bear with us.

"The average person has no idea of the maze of details to be followed in the changes we are making. For example, at the last minute, we find that the tote-carts have not arrived. Not only that, we will have to scurry around to get them in by next week."

Frank and Ray asked the indulgence of all, especially the many folks who have stopped by to examine the new setup, adding that they were pleased at the many favorable comments.

SF Rent Increases To Be Discussed

The meeting is being called by Arthur E. Hills, general chairman of the San Francisco Rent Advisory Board.

In the clutches of THE LAW and he doesn't know why

Most of the teen-age youngsters who run afoul of the law do not know why!

They can hardly be expected to realize that a lack of proper moral and religious training has left them ill-equipped for honest, decent living.

In many cases, their parents did not give them the advantage of religious education in the Church. And so, all their lives they may have to pay the penalty of their parent's neglect.

Juvenile Delinquency is hard to cure, but it is easy to prevent. The Church, with the support and cooperation of faithful parents, can equip every child with the sure foundation of Christian truth.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Youth Organizations Discussed At Serra Mothers' Auxiliary Meeting

Serra High School Mothers' Auxiliary was well represented by members at a recent meeting held in the school auditorium and were highly rewarded with a most interesting talk delivered, on Youth Organizations throughout the state, by Reverend Eugene Shea, Archdiocese director of the National Youth Committee and member of the Governor's committee for Youth Organizations.

Father Shea gave a brief outline of the Governor's conference held recently in Sacramento which was attended by professional people by special invitation. The conference was in preparation of the Mid-Century White House Conference to be held in the White House in November. It's purpose will be to study accomplishments in the Youth and Children's field, such as the great importance of religious training as a basis of Family life and closer cooperation of the church and home.

The group discussion was divided into several sections, first on family life for the infant, pre-school child, adolescent and youth; second for the Handicap physically and psychologically. Recommendations were made for more personnel training and the need of more money in order to maintain psychiatrical and psychological clinic service for problem children.

Mrs. Maurice McCormick, president of the Mothers' Auxiliary followed with the opening of a short business meeting in which members voted for a "Yule Tour of Homes" in December. Like previous tours which have proven such a tremendous success, entertainment and refreshments will be a main feature as well as the beautiful Xmas decor which will be carried out in each home.

Announcement of the homes of the tour will be made at a later date. Mrs. Maurice McCormick appointed Mrs. R. L. Griffiths of San Mateo as general chairman of the tour; Mrs. C. G. Ramboud as ticket chairman with Mrs. Joseph Sweyd as co-chairman; and Mrs. James Burton as chairman of the refreshment committee.

Mrs. James Flanagan of Redwood City, who recently represented Serra Mothers at an annual meeting of National Council of Catholic Women of the Archdiocese, gave an interesting report of the meeting and outlined the work of the National Council Legion of Decency.

The Serra meeting was concluded with an inspiring talk by Rev. John Cunningham, moderator of the auxiliary, on "Our Boys" and stressed the importance of encouraging good spiritual family life in every home.

Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria and hostesses were Mesdames John Kenneally of Redwood City, John Garvin of San Mateo, Nino Batista of San Mateo, J. R. Bartlett of San Carlos, A. J. Nicolini of San Francisco and E. Podesto of Burlingame.

Members of Court St. Mary No. 1155 Pay Tribute To CDA State Secretary

By Mrs. Arthur Heyden

Court St. Mary's was the scene of a gala reception in honor of State Secretary Mrs. Milton C. Weckerle and honored guest Mrs. Timmothy M. Maloney, state regent of the Catholic Daughters of America Thursday evening in the Blue Room of Masonic Hall, Daly City.

Receiving in the reception line were Grand Regent Mrs. Richard J. Ennis, Mrs. Milton C. Weckerle, state secretary, Mrs. Timmothy M. Malone, state regent, and Mrs. Bernard O'Connell, district deputy for Court St. Mary's.

The reception was then opened by Grand Regent Mrs. R. J. Ennis, who welcomed the 250 guests and congratulated Mrs. M. C. Weckerle and the state officers, wishing them every success during their term in office, after which Mrs. Ennis graciously turned the meeting over to Mrs. Fred J. Wettstein, the chairman of the evening, who offered her felicitations to the honored officers and guests and proceeded with the program.

The highlight of the evening consisted of a dedication number for the state secretary, "Our Lady of Fatima," sung by Mesdames George Stiel, soprano, Caroline Ostrofe, soprano, Arthur Heyden, contralto, R. J. Ennis, alto, with a violin obligato played by Mrs. Joseph Sorci, piano accompaniment by Mrs. Fred J. Wettstein. This was followed by a recitation of "A Prayer" by Mrs. Sorci with musical background. Ethelbert Nevin's "The Rosary" was sung as an encore. Mrs. George Stiel then gave a beautiful solo rendition of Guno's "Ave Maria."

Following the musical, many gifts were presented to the state regent and state secretary. Honored guests and speakers then were introduced.

Rev. Adrian J. McKenna, Court St. Mary's chaplain, offered his congratulations to Mrs. Weckerle on the work she had done for the C.D.A. and in parish affairs. Rev. Thomas A. Walsh, chaplain of west of Twin Peaks for the past eight years was then introduced. After which Rev. Louis Schoen, O.F.M. of St. Anthony's parish, gave a resume of his 19 years as chaplain of C.D.A., serving courts in Phoenix, Arizona, and Santa Barbara, California.

State Regent Mrs. Timmothy M. Maloney was then called on. She was followed by Mrs. Milton C. Weckerle, state secretary, who thanked the court, chairman and many friends for the reception tendered her. The meeting was closed with guests retiring to the banquet hall where delicious refreshments were served.

Beautiful baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and favors in gold and lavender graced the hall and tables. Other state officers in attendance were:

Mrs. Ethel McHugh, archdiocesan chairman of study clubs; Mrs. Pauline Lucich, archdiocesan chairman of social welfare; Mrs. Alice Parks, archdiocesan chairman of extension; Mrs. Alfreda Molitor, archdiocesan chairman of share the faith.

Eagles' Halloween Teen-Age Dance Scheduled For This Saturday Night

Auxiliary Slates November Canasta

Canasta will be the order of the day again in Broadmoor November 10.

At that time the Lake Merced VFW Auxiliary No. 9921 will hold a canasta party at the home of Mrs. James Holt, 114 Garden Lane. The players will be seated at 1 p. m. Those inteersted in attending are to call Mrs. Holt at PLaza 5-1531, or Mrs. Dorothy Heim at PLaza 5-1642.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Heim walked off with top honors at the recent canasta party held at Mrs. Holt's home. The gift Mrs. Heim was awarded came from Dave's Market. Taking the low score honors was Mrs. Jean Brugge.

Jeff High Senior Chosen As Member Of Fashion Board

Elaine Pinasco, 247 Paris street, a senior at Jefferson High school, has been selected as a member of the Emporium High School 1950-51 Fashion Advisory board.

This will be the third year for the Board at the store, but the first to include Peninsula schools.

The new Board includes 27 girls. Last year's Board totaled 21. A girl representing each public and parochial school in San Francisco, and one from each of the Peninsula high schools, will serve this year.

The girls — all juniors or seniors in their respective schools — have been chosen by their school and by the store for their leadership, scholastic standing, their aptitude with people, and their general interest in fashion and merchandising. Included are five student body presidents, two school paper editors, several class officers, and students who are outstanding in shcool activities.

Their term on the Board lasts from October to June. They meet every Saturday morning from 9 to 12 with our buyers of teen-age clothes and with The Emporium Sub-Deb director who, for the current Board, will be Marie Bickel. The girls are thoroughly trained in retail merchandising in these Saturday morning sessions by informative talks with store personnel, group discussions with key store people, and trips to local manufacturers to view and give their personal appraisal of advance fashions. They will assist in all merchandising problems at the store affecting clothes for high school wear.

As members of the Board they are employed by The Emporium, and spend each Saturday afternoon, from 1 to 5, in selling positions throughout the entire store, which gives them practical department store experience.

They are also trained to put on professional fashion shows: by learning, under expert guidance, how to organize, accessorize, and model clothes, doing both the "out front" and "back stage" work on the showing of new fashions.

Woodrow Wilson Dad's Night Is Big Success

The Woodrow Wilson PTA gathered for its regular monthly meeting at the school on Tuesday, October 17 at 7:30 p.m. The kindergarten room in which the meeting was held was filled to overflowing with parents and teachers gathered to witness a very fine evening's program.

The session began with a short business meeting followed by introduction of the teachers to the assembled group by Mrs. Hahn, principal of Woodrow Wilson. An excellent demonstration of class work was given by fourth grade pupils under the supervision of their teacher, Miss Inez Strauch. This was followed by the introduction of Superintendent James Snell who took this occasion to answer several questions put forth by parents in regard to building plans and facilities available to students in the near future.

The piece de resistance of the evening was the designing of "hats by dad" with mother serving as model. Mr. and Mrs. Bertelli, Mr. and Mrs. Fehl, Mr. and Mrs. Atteberry, Mr. and Mrs. Ekienberry and Mr. and Mrs. Sakeldasis bravely volunteered to enter the contest. They proceeded to make and model some outstanding creations which delighted and amused the assembled group. At the expiration of the time limit set for the contest, Mr. Emil Bertelli was declared the winner by an overwhelming audience vote and received as his prize a homemade cake beautifully gift wrapped.

The hospitality chairmen, Mrs. J. Ausano and Mrs. E. Turney, served homemade apple pie and coffee to close a very delightful evening.

The next executive board meeting will take place on Tuesday, October 7 at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. James Hickey, 135 East Vista avenue.

Capacity Crowd Attends Eagles Cancer Fund Dance

A capacity crowd jammed the Eagles Hall last Saturday night to participate in the frolic put on by Colma-Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, F.O.E., for the benefit of the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund.

Most of the merry makers appeared in costume, and naturally there was a wide and weird variety of "characters." For those who appeared in ordinary dress, a specially built jail-house had been constructed, and quite a large number were forced to spend some time in jail, to listen to ribs and cat-calls of others, and to pay fines in order to be released.

Bud Wilkes, Tom Quickert, Lloyd Selmi and Bernard Bigazzi, in charge of the jail, realized a substantial amount in fines for the Cancer Fund. Del Fehl, Jack Voboril and John Blankenhorn, in charge of the raffle, also did very well for the Fund.

Many nice prizes were given away, including a Mamma Doll donated by James J. McGrath, Sheriff of San Mateo county; a set of silverware given by the Eagles; bottles of whiskey from Jack Voboril and Al Davis; four large balls of cheese from Del Fehl and the New Sonoma Creamery; a bronze horse from the Colonial Gift Shop; 15 gallons of gasoline from Daly City Super Service, and a case of beer from the New Deal Restaurant.

The committee in charge of the games, Bill Carrington, Nate Fearman, Bob Beebe and Dave Malinoff, also had a good response from the crowd.

Decorations were carried out in a Hallowe'en motif, and refreshments were served at midnight with Ernie Romer and Bob Hacker in charge.

Bert Meritt, chairman of the committee in charge of general arrangements stated: "The results of the benefit were gratifying, and Colma-Vista Grande Aerie is very pleased to be able to make a substantial contribution to the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund." He also added that he wished to thank all those who worked or contributed toward making the frolic an outstanding success.

Many Attend West Lake Church Services Sunday

The large number present at the first service of the Westlake Community Baptist Church, held in the spacious and beautiful auditorium of the Serra Theatre, 87th and Junipero Serra boulevard, Colma, far exceeded the expectations of its pastor, Rev. Milam.

The beautiful auditorium affords the church the opportunity to obtain the finest musical talent available to make the morning worship service worshipful and yet informative and edifying.

Next Sunday morning Miss Helen Glover, member of the San Francisco Opera Association, 1950 season, will sing again two beautiful sacred numbers in song. Last Sunday's rendition by Miss Glover brought a musical treat to all who heard her sing "Teach Me to Pray," by Jewitt, and "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte.

Ozzie Coulthart will also render two beautiful sacred numbers on his musical trumpet.

Mildred M. Whinnen Elected To Head DC Sportswomen; Installation Nov. 25

By Mrs. E. K. Whinnen

Nomination and election of officers was the order of the day at the October 18 meeting of the Daly City Sportswomen.

Mildred Mae Whinnen, one of the three or four original organizers remaining in the club, and at present publicity chairman, was elected president. Laurien Fox, at present secretary-treasurer, was elected vice-president, and Mary Sullivan, one of the delegates to Council 7, was elected secretary-treasurer. Mary also is one of the original organizers of the club.

The new officers will be installed at a dinner to be held at the Colonial Cafe November 25. Anna Van Dyne, of the San Francisco Sportswomen, has been invited to be installing officer for the occasion.

The Colonial Cafe has promised to make this a gala event, with music for dancing and pretty fall decorations for the table. The installation dinner is one of the highlights of the year for the Sportswomen and is entered into with gay and happy spirits. Husbands and boy friends will be invited to escort the ladies, of course.

The remainder of the meeting was devoted to plans for the dinner, and discussion of the coming shooting meet at Lake Merced, which will have taken place before this article goes to press. The competition will be keen, as some of the wives of members of the Daly City Rod and Gun Club, who are hosts, are crack shots, it is reported. More about this next week.

Church Slates Ground-Breaking Exercises Sunday

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the proposed $65,000 Community Congregational Church will take place Sunday, October 28, at Randolph street and Ramsell avenue in Merced Heights.

More than 100 people including civic and community leaders will take a hand in the shoveling spectacle beginning at 12:30.

"Everyone is welcome to bring a shovel and participate in the half-hour ceremony," declares the Reverend Carl E. Olson, church pastor.

The new church will succeed the Ocean View Community Church, according to the Reverend Olson.

The Reverend Olson, who recently assumed pastorate duties at the Ocean View church, indicates the new building will consist of three divisions. The sanctuary should be ready by April and Easter. A social hall and an education room tentatively should be completed next fall.

Meanwhile, the congregation's followers will continue to hold Sunday services at the Ocean View Community Church.

Dignitaries on hand for the ground breaking will include Commissioner Ernest L. West, representing the city of Can Francisco; E. C. Farnham, executive director of the S.F. council of churches; Harley Gill, superintendent of the Northern California Congregational Conference; and M. F. Isaksen, president of the Merced Heights Association.

Education Leader Gives Good Advice

"If you can let your children go and not hang on to them, also allow them to make decisions of their own when they reach the teen--age stage, then you are a good parent," so says Mrs. Eleanor Topalian, parent education leader from the Marina Adult school, when she addressed the members of Sheridan P.T.A. at their regular monthly meeting held on Tuesday, October 17.

A dessert luncheon was served preceding the meeting and Sheridan P.T.A. was happy to welcome so many new mothers giving us the opportunity to get acquainted. Many thanks to the committee, which made this luncheon possible.

Mrs. A. T. Neenan, recreation chairman, announced that Sheridan P.T.A. will hold their annual Hallowe'en costume parade for the Sheridan School children on Tuesday, October 31, at 3 p.m. at the Ocean View playground. She also urged the mothers to come too and see the fun their children have.

Patriotic Service To Keynote Legion Auxiliary Activity

Patriotic service will keynote the activities of the American Legion Auxiliary during the coming year, Mrs. Mary E. Morgan, first vice president of the 26th district, announced today as the organization began enrollment of members for 1951.

The Auxiliary will work closely with The American Legion to help give America the unity and strength that the world situation demands, Mrs. Morgan said.

Already the largest women's patriotic organization in the United States, with nearly one million members, the Auxiliary is seeking a large increase in enrollment during the coming years, in order to expand its activities to meet current conditions. Invitations to enroll are now being extended to all women of war service families.

"The coming year will see the American Legion Auxiliary in action by the side of The American Legion in all forms of patriotic activities," said Mrs. Morgan. "Our program will be geared to the needs of the nation, as it leads the free people of the world in the struggle against aggression and slavery. Every Auxiliary member will have full opportunity to do her part in this work.

"At this time no American can sit on the sidelines. Everyone must be actively at work for America or be, in effect, giving aid and comfort to the nation's enemies. There is something for everyone to do, and we must all forget selfish considerations in serving our country.

"In the American Legion Auxiliary is a place where women of war service families can work effectively to aid the national effort and to care for those who have defended America, their widows and their children. Our organization has a big task ahead, and we need the help of every eligible woman."

The dinner will be served at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, November 4. Anyone who appreciates good home cooking is bound to enjoy the bazaar feed.

Remember, the public is invited, and regardless of whether you are a member of the church or not, don't forget to attend the bazaar next Friday and Saturday, November 3 to 4.

Tickets Now On Sale For Jefferson High School Production of "Stage Door"

Tickets for Jefferson Union high school's production of "Stage Door" are now on sale at Lees Prescription Pharmacy, 6389 Mission street, Anchor Drug Co., Colma, and at the high school.

"Stage Door" will be presented in the Jefferson high school auditorium November 17, under the direction of Miss Eunice Seaton and her student director, Jean London.

"Stage Door" is the story of the hopes and accomplishments of a lot of girls who have theatrical ambitions and who all live in a boarding house in New York. Terry is a stage-struck girl who refuses to give up her ideals about the theatre while Jean willingly gives up the stage for the glamour of Hollywood. Kaye finds all of life too much for her and Madeleine feels thwarted because she gets only roles in road companies that tour the coast and she wants to stay in New York.

Mary Lou Morris will be seen as the stage-struck Terry Randall while Ken Willbanks will play the part of Keith Burgess, the left-wing playwright who goes Hollywood. Madeleine will be played by Jo Ann Breckon and Elissa Marquez will take the part of Kaye. Other important roles will be portrayed by Cecilia Sullivan, Lorraine Cady, Al Johnson, Sharon Girard, Verna Weston, Mary Ann Bass, Gary Larson, Janice Sproule, Joan de Vore, Gary McFall and Joan Dennis.

Set in a girls' theatrical boarding house in New York City's West Fifties, "Stage Door" offers a behind-the-scenes glimpse into a seldom-explored side of the glittering, and often heart - breaking world of the living theatre. Garnished with dialogue that snaps and crackles, the comedy hit is from the pens of the famed Kaufman-Ferber writing team which has also been responsible for such other well-remembered successes as "Dinner at Eight" and "The Royal Family of Broadway."

17th District CCPT Holds Health Symposium To Emphasize Family Life

Interdependence of physical, mental, social and spritual health factors was the concern of Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers at Sequoia Union High School auditorium in Redwood City on Thursday, October 19.

Symposium speakers and other program events emphasized good health standards for all areas of family living.

In introductions prefacing the symposium, Mrs. Roy N. Cloud Jr. of Redwood City, district health director, said, "Health we all have—good, bad or indifferent though it may be. Today we consider not only the tangible aspects of physical health in our bodies, but the intangibles of spirit, mind, and social life in the community."

As San Mateo county director of health and welfare, Dr. Harold D. Chope spoke briefly on available services that in this county maintain high levels of public health. Dr. Chope then reassured parents on disaster protection plans for school children. He stated, "Since blood typing is unnecessary for administering plasma (now universally used),one of the medical problems we should not need to combat in an emergency is public panic."

Dr. Maurice Grossman, psychiatrist of Menlo Park, stressed that mental health is not isolated from other phases. His conclusion was, "With resources our fears subside. In the whole life picture knowledge of environment and the individual gives reassurance conducive to mental health."

An outline of facilities offered by the Family Service Agency was presented by Mrs. Ruth L. Olson of San Mateo. The Council of Social Agencies and the Community Chest cooperate on referrals and support which may be utilized by families throughout San Mateo county. Fields listed by Mrs. Olson were: personal counselling, education for family living, parent-child relationships, marital problems, economic studies, and health needs.

"Spiritual health is the step-child in family living!" So the Rev. Lawrence K. Whitfield of Millbrae Community church challenged his listeners. From that promise the Rev. Whitfield went on to declare, "We develop social consciousness; we value physical and mental health up to a point; yet we don't employ the same judgment to choose our religious outlets, which in turn might make our lives more meaningful."

Summaries and a question period closed the symposium. It was brought out that San Mateo county has an official adoption agency at Community Hospital in South San Mateo, and that the three Child Care Centers in the county are directed by the education department rather than the welfare division.

Mrs. John Sorensen of Daly City, room representative chairman, prepared a procedure sheet for unit room mothers. Magazines for El Portal del Sol school in Millbrae were requested by Mrs. J. J. Sherwood of Burlingame, exceptional child chairman. Donations will be used in occupational therapy for the cerebral palsied.

P.T.A. membership week, October 8 to 14, has resulted in 100 per cent classroom membership in many schools.

100 North County Men Take Physicals

Although the war may virtually be over in Korea, it just began this week for the majority of 100 men from north San Mateo county.

The men, many of whom are from Daly City, took their pre-induction physical examinations for induction next month.

Thirteen men failed to respond to the call for them to take the examination, some of them because of illness, the local draft coordinator said.

Church Welcomes Return Of Pastor

The Lutheran Church of Our Savior, Garfield and Junipero Serra boulevard, had an overflow of worshippers at its regular 11 a.m. divine worship service last Sunday.

They made warm their "welcome home" to Rev. Robert G. Konzelman and his family who have just returned from Ohio and other eastern states, being on vacation and attending conferences. The chapel was decorated in fall flowers — golden chrysanthemums predominating. The robed choir sang "Lead Me, Lord."

At this service the Boy Scout Charter was presented to Troop No. 82, which is the troop being sponsored by the Brotherhood of the Church. The pastor made formal dedication of the new American and troop flag. Wayne Kohagen is scoutmaster and he is considered by many scout leaders as one of the finest Boy Scout workers in the Bay Area.

Sunday school and bible classes are held every Sunday morning at 9:45 and divine services are at 11. The pastor may be reached by phoning JU 4-0293 or JU 4-8501.

Cry In Your Beer Now Costs 5c More

It was bad news this week for beer guzzlers. The price of most western bottled beer will go from 20 cents to 25 cents a bottle.

The State Board of Equalization has annuonced that virtually all breweries, eastern and western, have posted price increases within the past 10 days.

Harold Eckart, executive secretary of the California Federal Institute of Tavern Owners, estimated that two thirds of all California taverns have increased the price of western beer to 25 cents. He predicted the rest will follow suit. He asserted tavern owners have already absorbed three price increases in recent months.

The price of eastern beer is expected to go from 30 to 35 cents a bottle in bars.

SF Pacific Opera Season Announced

The fourth annual season of the Pacific Opera Company — San Francisco's so-called "Dollar Opera" — was announced this week.

Opening November 29 at the War Memorial Opera House in the Civic Center with a performance of La Boheme, the series will conclude on Friday evening, December 15, with a performance of Tosca. Two matinee performances are scheduled for Berkeley, December 6 and December 9.

Constantly increasing prices of commodities and services have compelled the Pacific Opera Company to revise its ticket price range for orchestra and grand tier seats in the Opera House. These will now be $2 top instead of the former price of $1.50. There is no change in remaining seat prices of $1.80, $1.50 and $1.20, tax included.

Tickets are on sale at the Opera Box Office, Sherman & Clay, San Francisco 8.

Leota Dance Studio Student Is Queen

More than ten thousand persons last Saturday took part in, or observed the special Columbus Day parade for children in South San Francisco.

Leading the parade as its queen was Marilyn Andersen of Rancho Buri Buri. Marilyn, a pupil at the Leota Studio of Dance, was chosen for the honor by Mrs. Swager, manager of the studio and chairman of the Queen's committee.

On the colorful float with Marilyn were seven attendants, one of whom was Laura Lee Swager.

This was the first year that a kiddies' parade was added to the regular Columbus Day celebration, held one day later in South City.

OFF THE RECORD

Students Trek Too

Jefferson's Indians bussed 48 miles last week to have at the San Jose High Bulldogs. They went, they saw and they conquered the boys from the fruit capital. And in the process, Glenn South's Tribe, a small one at that, had company.

We're not one for making exact estimates, but without being far off we'd say about 150 Daly City students made the jaunt for the contest. That's a sizeable turnout everything considered. Some came via Greyhound, others shared squeeze-quarters in automobiles, hot rods, etc. The main thing is that their attendance was appreciated no end.

Jeff Rooters Swell

The irony of the Friday tilt in Spartan Stadium was the fact that San Jose's rooting section didn't contain too many souls. Ordinarily we thought a school of that size would have quite a following, but a glance at their side of the stands left one gazing twice in search of more inhabitants.

Not that the San Jose partisans didn't get the job done, though. They rooted and tooted when the occasion demanded; which was often. But even with their noticeable advantage in numbers we'd say the Jeff minority across the field in the other seats more than held their own. They made plenty of noise, more than their quota would demand.

Contest Close

Everything was favorable for a good afternoon of football. Weather was warm and sunshine was bright. And what transpired on the field gave onlookers real cause to get excited. The game was very tense and the outcome was uncertain to the very end.

The local single wing outfit needed that win and needed it badly. San Jose might have wrapped up the game had they exerted themselves a little harder at the right moments.

Jefferson's win was deserving, however. South's team showed plenty of fight and drive and they reaped dividends.

Pass Defense Shaggy

With each game, the Indians are maturing as a team. They'll have to work on pass defense or their victory ship is liable to sink.

South expected San Jose to throw everything at Jeff in the matter of passing. He set his defenses accordingly, but this kid Joe Bondi completed a dozen passes anyway. That's not good news for a team that wants to go all the way.

If the Jeffs smooth out their defense, linewise and backfield-wise, who knows? South's offense is in capable hands. The case rests.

PAL Skirmishes

Peninsula Athletic League action simmers down somewhat this week end. Palo Alto's Vikings have a bye and their inactivity is welcomed by the rest of circuit's clubs. The Vikings seem to be a red hot squad and nobody looks forward to getting knocked silly.

Vikings Score Often

Palo Alto spanked Lincoln's Lions last week 37-7, in a battle that was supposed to be close and decisive in the P.A.L. race. Lincoln's failure left only San Mateo and Jefferson in the unbeaten class with the apparently loaded Vikings. The Palo Alto eleven has averaged 35 points in three games to date.....

Hard to predict this week are Willow Glen at San Jose, and South City at Lincoln. Jefferson and San Mateo are choices in their respective jousts with Burlingame and Sequoia.

Though South City is in the cellar momentarily, the Warriors qualify as the hard luck team in the P.A.L. Last in standings, Ben Bramble's lads are fifth in most points scored. They fell to touted Paly by only two TDs, 25-12, and a week later finished but six points inferior to San Mateo's Bearcats, 25-19. Last Friday, Willow Glen surprised with an 18-13 triumph over the Warriors.

It's a logical bet that South City won't stay in the basement too long. Pretty soon, the law of averages should give them an even shake. They've flirted with victory so long that they're becoming frustrated. If they don't resign themselves to defeat, they could snap out of their lethargy. When and where, no one knows.

Panthers Injury Plagued

Burlingame is due for the most purple hearts and words of sympathy. Since the season began, the Panthers have lost four starters through serious injuries. That could be the reason for their ineptness.

Beg His Pardon

Mr. Ridgely Cummings took a few shots at the 49ers last week in a lengthy composition on this page.

Ordinarily we don't like to squawk, but we felt we had a few cracks of our own to throw back at Mr. Cummings.

In a nutshell, he condemned the 49ers, front office, coaching, and players. The whole works.

Like so many other disappointed supporters of the San Francisco entry, Mr. Cummings expressed downright disgust with Buck Shaw and company. There's just no reason for losing week after week. That's what he said right there in black and white.

Was It Justified?

For a thinking man, we'd say Mr. Cummings didn't use his gray matter at all in arriving at his conviction. Or was it a denounciation?

To be succint, we offer this explanation of what's wrong with the hometown pros.

Right off, their schedule beat 'em. They met the Redskins, the Eagles, the Yankees, the Bears, and the Rams in succession. That hurt. There were no soft ones en route.

Injuries and Greenness

The 49ers suffered enough injuries for two football teams. All to key men, too. Even at the very start of the season, they were never ready to go with all first stringers intact.

Inexperience was an expected handicap.

Morabito and his thinking corps of Shaw, Lawson and Taylor knew they needed big linemen. The 49ers have given weight to each and every team they've met. Their offensive forwards are light as weight charts around the league go.

Rookies like Nomellini, Campora, Mathews, and Dow are a lot like freshmen in college. They're green but will improve with seasoning.

Mr. Cummings asserts that the 49ers don't compare with the All-America Conference 49ers. Did he ever think how much difference there is between the two leagues?

The All-America conference was almost always a foregone conclusion. The same teams dominated during the four-year history. Not so in the National Football League. No weak sisters and the balance of power is evening distributed.

The demise of the AAC gave the NFL sole rights in the bidding for the best college performers. Caliber improved enormously.

Expect Too Much

Mr. Cummings' lack of perspective is shared by a lot of people. Most of the football filberts underestimated the National Football League and overestimated the 49ers.

The roster is better supplied but the environment is rougher this time out.

Mr. Cummings' statement that the present 49ers are below previous standards is rediculous. The 49ers have quit playing with the boys and are keeping company with the men nowadays.

If the San Francisco pros lack drive, as Mr. Cummings asserts, it's a new one on them. They have more cause to win now than ever before. And don't think they haven't hustled. The Yankee game two weeks ago and the 49ers' long-awaited victory last week over Detroit are evidence of their eagerness and determination.

Silver Fox Is Sly

Release of a few men has caused considerable excitement, but we think Buck Shaw knows best. He's been in the business long enough to know who he needs and who he doesn't.

Morabito's acquisition of Loyd, Soltau, and Bullock, after the campaign started indicate the initiative of that money mogul towards improvement.

Once the 49ers are restored to complete health, and their rookies take on a little polish, San Francisco will have a contending team again.

Not this year. It's too late now. But the future looks promising now that people have taken account of what the 49ers have been up against.

How's That Again?

We wrote a sentimental little piece two issues back. What was it we were saying about Frank Leahy's Notre Dame team? Oh, yes . . . possibly the best in the nation before the season is out?

Ok, so we were wrong. At least we thought so.

Repeat Tells Something

Purdue, then Indiana rocks the Irish. That's bad. It means the Boilermaker wins was no fluke, the South Bend outfit is below par, and the ND aggregation will lose again before this year of upsets is history.

For a while the Irish had us fooled. We didn't figure they would do an el foldo twice in three weeks. Not against their home state rivals. In that neck of the woods, they take national holidays when they are so fortunate to spill Notre Dame.

Maybe we should have known it could happen again. Tulane eliminated six Notre Dame regulars in losing 13-9 to Leahy's legions down south. Injuries coupled with weak reserves explain everything.

Hoosiers Far Better

Indiana, like Purdue, stymied the Irish. The Bloomington boys held the South Bend Hoosiers to 93 yards on the ground. You have to go way back when to find Notre Dame futility like that.

Wonder if Mr. Leahy is headed on another streak, this time going the other direction? There's still Michigan State, Iowa and Southern California coming up.

Things sure have changed. And Leahy's tears are genuine. He'll need more than one crying towel.

Mossi Fans 14 In 2-1 Triumph For Sarto AC

Sarto A. C. right hander Don Mossi complained of a stiff throwing arm before taking the hill against the La Scala Restaurant nine at Marchbanks Park last Sunday in a Golden Gate Park League game.

But before the game was on the record books his flipper had loosened up considerably.

The Bakersfield pro struck out 14 batters and gave up a measly three hits as his mates helped edge the Restaurant team, 2-1, in nine innings.

Mossi's pitching opponent, Bill McKenna of the Texas League, turned in a fair to midlin' job himself. He sent seven Sarto batters down on strikes and scattered five hits.

The La Scala gang got their run in a troublesome fifth inning for Mossi. Three free passes and an error pushed their tally across.

After this the Sarto thrower settled down and finished strongly.

Tying the score in the sixth canto, Vic Baher's club supplied the clincher with a one-run rally in the bottom of the eighth inning. Herm Sick crossed the plate on the wings of Ted Welp's timely single.

Mossi really bore down in the ninth, striking out the side.

Welp's two belts featured Sarto's five hit total.

The victory gave the Sarto AC a 3-1 record in their league.

Sunday, the local club continues its drive for loop leadership in a 12 o'clock tussle with the Ocean View Merchants at Marchbanks Park. The Merchants toppled Foster's 8-7, Sunday.

Other G.G.P.L. action found Eddie Cereghino, Jefferson ace, tossing a three-hit 10-6 win over previously unbeaten Walter Gordon's. The Chioino triumph pushed them to a tie for the league top spot with Les Vogel's who defeated Molkenbuhr Bros., 7-0. Both now have perfect 3-0 slates.

Sarto A. C. and Foster's are tied for third place with identical 3-1 records.

Gelsi's Batters Get Only Three Hits In 5-1 Loss

Lack of batting punch spoiled Red Dunn's pitching debut for Gelsi's Cavern last Sunday as the Liquor Lads dropped a National League Double A game to Tufo Jewelers, 5-1, at Funston Field.

His mates garnered only three hits off Tufo hurler Descalso, while Dunn, an acquisition from the fire department nine, was touched for 12 hits.

The jewelry team tallied single runs in the first two innings, two more in the seventh, and one more in the eighth.

It was a close ball game until the seventh and eighth frames.

In the fourth inning, with Gelsi's trailing 2-1, the losers started their one and only rally of the contest. It was over almost as fast as it began. With men on first and third and in scoring position, catcher Harry Krohn's line drive into left field was caught on a beautiful catch and the runner on third was doubled off at that base. The double play killed the brief Gelsi flareup.

Fred Fazzio collected two hits for Gelsi's and scored their lone run. Tom Noonan got the other Cavern hit.

This Sunday Gelsi's meets Syl's Service in Marchbanks Park at 2 o'clock. Dunn probably will get the call for mound duty.

Blingums Beat McGrath's Braves

An opportunistic Burlingame frosh-soph team spoiled Coach Joe McGrath's Jefferson Braves P.A.L. unveiling last Thursday, 21-6.

All three Burlingame touchdowns came on short notice and in quick order.

On the first series of downs, the visitors ran a Brave punt 80 yards for the tally. Jefferson fumbled early in the second quarter on their own 35 and moments later Burlingame had TD number two.

McGrath's squad tried to make it a ball game at the offset of the second half. Art Labadie ran 58 yards on an end sweep for Jefferson's only score. That made it 6-14.

Burlingame finished the game's scoring midway through the last period on a long pass-and-run.

SF State Gaters Host Chico State; Lambast Humboldt

Joe Verducci and his San Francisco State Gaters look for a much closer game tomorrow night than the one they waltzed through last Friday.

They buried Humboldt State with an eight-touchdown barrage in that one, 53-0, their second straight Far West Conference win.

Chico State is the opponent on State's Cox Field tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

The Chico team slipped over Southern Oregon last week, 7-6. Verducci's men previously halted Southern Oregon, 39-21.

In two no-count games, the Gaters thumped Cal Tech, 35-7, and lost as expected to Whittier, 41-20.

Scoring honors in the Humboldt track meet were divided among six players.

Rudy Smith and Johnny O'Shea hit paydirt two times apiece on runs. Smith broke away for an 88-yard jaunt and sped five yards for his second TD. O'Shea counted on dashes of 44 and 24 yards.

Quarterback Sammy DeVito completed TD pitches to Elmer Gallegos and Dick Payne, his ends.

Fullback Walt Jourdan and scatback Marv Crew also carried the ball for six points.

Second Half Play Begins In Touch Football League

Second half play in the Daly City Recreation Department's Junior Football League commences tomorrow with four games scheduled at Marchbanks Park.

First half league winners were O.L.P.H. in the A League and Crocker AM in the B League. Both squads had perfect 3-0 slates.

O.L.P.H. annexed the "A" leadership with a 13-0 win over Jefferson last week. Crocker AMs downed their afternoon school mates 33-6 in the other "A" League feature.

B League results last week saw Crocker AM disposing of Crocker PM, 6-0, and O.L.P.H. beating Jefferson, 7-0.

Tommorow, the Jefferson teams meet the Crocker PMs and the O.L.P.H. squads battle the Crocker AMs.

All youngsters interested in playing for one of the league teams is urged to contact Mr. Reynolds at the Crocker school or at Marchbanks Park on Saturdays.

Rams, Bulldogs Collide Tonight On Kezar Turf

City College of San Francisco's Rams and San Mateo Junior College's Bulldogs renew their aged rivalry tonight in a Northern California Junior College Conference clash in Kezar Stadium. Kickoff is at 8 o'clock.

Both teams seek their first conference triumph.

Grover Klemmer's eleven has lost two NCJCC contests. Menlo swamped the Rams, 24-0, and Monterey's potent Lobos got by with a 27-19 win.

Herb Hudson's Bulldogs dropped a 18-13 heartbreaker to Stockton and succumbed to a fighting Hartnell outfit last Saturday night, 19-13.

In an intersectional engagement last Friday, City College was decisioned by Los Angeles Junior College, 21-6, at the southern metropolis. The host team bettered a 7-6 half-time advantage with single touchdowns in the third and fourth periods. Fullback Bob McBride climaxed a 73-yard Ram push by plunging over from a yard out in the first quarter.

San Mateo's only non-league appearance was a 25-13 setback by Glendale JC two weeks ago.

Johnny Leal's passing was a little off Saturday in the Hartnell defeat. He attempted 14 throws with four completions and two interceptions.

The Salinas club rolled to an early two-touchdown lead and stayed in front throughout. A 37-yard pass play set up the final Hartnell score in the third quarter.

San Mateo tallied on a straight-ahead sneak by Leal with two minutes to go in the first half and a one-yard shot by fullback Spencer Fine early in the last period.

San Mateo had most first downs, 11-9, but was second best in total yards, with 215 to 280 for the winners.

Orlich's Cagers Split With Burlingame Fives

Jefferson Union High's 110 and 120 pound basketball teams went separate ways last week against Burlingame.

Paced by Don Delbon's 19 points, the 20s won with ease, 43-25. The 10s led at the half, 15-7, but eventually lost out, 22-19.

The 20s are unbeaten in P.A.L. play with two straight victories. They trampled Lincoln of San Jose, 43-26, in their other league appearance.

Defeat in the Blingum tilt left the 10s without a win to date in league action. They lost two weeks ago to Lincoln's 10s, 28-24.

Coach Mike Orlich singled out Tom Costello and Jerry Wood for their efforts in the Burlingame encounter. Dick Trantham scored nine points in a losing cause.

Orlich also liked the play of Ray Record, with 13 digits, and the hustle of Bud Silva and Don Rose, in the 20s victory.

JEFFERSON NIPS SAN JOSE 20-12

Indians Make Breaks Count For Win; Max Kliem Tallies Two Touchdowns

By Roy Hurlbert

Converting an intercepted pass and a blocked kick into the margin of victory, Jefferson Union High School's Indians barely got over their first tough P.A.L. test last Friday in taking a 20-12 decision over a rough San Jose High eleven at Spartan Stadium.

Breaks certainly came the way of Coach Glenn South's outfit in winning their third straight game and second league triumph. Had not the other guys made the mistakes the outcome might have been reversed.

Bulldog Line Rough

Jeff showed to advantage only on the scoreboard. In the statistical end of things, the home town Bulldogs hogged honors.

Their line, reputed a veritable no man's land for enemy ball carriers was that and then some. And their passing attack all but wrecked the Daly City crew. Jefferson's pass defense didn't stop much of anything.

Bondi Terrific

San Jose's Joe Bondi was the high school Otto Graham Friday as his precise pitching was phenomenal. The senior quarterback tossed for both Bulldog TDs to right end Dick Zimmerman and when his chores were finished he had completed 13 passes in 22 attempts. It wasn't his fault he didn't bring his mates home on top.

Bondi's aerial bombs netted San Jose 148 yards while his ground troops maneuvered for only 82. San Jose's grand total of 230 yards gained was 53 better than Jefferson could muster.

They outdowned the Indians, 13-9.

Jeffs Go Outside

Jeff rushed for 106 yards, mostly off the tackles and at the flanks. Good reason for the direction, too. South's strategy was to go around and over the Bulldogs instead of piling straight ahead. Anyway, the Indians got very little except pile-ups when they tried to open the San Jose forward wall. Coach Ken Blue's team switched their line defenses as many times as changes are made in the diaper department. All the time, the Bulldogs held the fort down the middle.

Gallagher passed six times with three complete for 71 yards.

Fortunately for Jefferson, they got their "firstest with the mostest" and staggered through for the win. But San Jose was always in their threatening and remained that way until the final gun. The now-deflated defending champs ran out of gas when acceleration might have given them the ball game.

Indians on Long Drives

Jefferson's first two scores came in the first half on long sustained drives consisting of short, choppy gains.

On their second time with the hide, the Tribe surged 59 yards to paydirt two minutes before the first quarter expired. Eleven plays were consumed in the push that was climaxed by Max Kliem's six-yard end sweep for six points. Gallagher's 16-yard pass to Jack Wilson ate up a big hunk of the drive.

Bryan McMahon's conversion boot failed.

San Jose utilized a break a few minutes into the second quarter to tie the contest.

After an exchange of punts, the red-helmeted Bulldogs kicked on fourth down from their own 33. The ball bounced on the Jeff 35 where officials ruled that the pigskin had touched Wilson and then was recovered by a San Jose man.

Bondi Knots Count

The Bulldogs smacked six yards on four runs and then Bondi fired a 32-yard bullet to Zimmerman on the three, and the receiver loped into the end zone. Espinoza blocked the extra point try. It was 6-6.

On the subsequent kickoff, the Jeffs rolled from their 36 to TD number two in nine plays. Gallagher to Kliem almost made quicker work of it on the third play for Bobby threw a 20-yard pass to his right halfback on the S.J. 45. Kliem fought to the 27 before he was hauled down. Gallagher ran four yards on a wide sweep to his right for the TD six running slants later. Gallagher's conversion-attempting pass to Hal Hazen missed. The half ended 12-6.

Kliem Steals Pass

Jefferson's third tally came quick-like. Right after the third quarter began, the host eleven literally and actually threw a touchdown Jefferson's way.

On a fourth down pass, Bondi heaved high and wide and Kliem intercepted the ball on the San Jose 45 and tight-roped the sidelines all the way for his second TD of the day and Jeff's third, making it 18-6. A Gallagher to Wilson PAT pass was incomplete.

San Jose was mad now and they bruised to Jeff's one-foot line in 12 plays only to surrender the ball on downs. The Indians nervously tried two runs and on third down Tschirgi kicked feebly out to the Jefferson 23.

San Jose made sure they wouldn't be halted this time. Bondi hurled a seven-yarder to Zimmerman to make it 18-12 with one and a half minutes left in the period.

Tschirgi Put 'Em Back

Within tying range, San Jose looked like they were coming back. They stopped Jeff's next three scrimmage plays but good and waited for a chance to get the ball again.

But Ray Tschirgi's 57-yard kick rolled dead on the San Jose one-foot line and the Bulldogs were in a bad spot. Rich Harrison swarmed all over the Bulldog punter to block a first-down kick for a safety. Twelve minutes remained to be played and Jefferson had a 20-12 edge.

With seven minutes to go, Tschirgi again set the Bulldogs back on their heels with a low 50-yard punt to the Bulldog two.

So Near, So Far

Time running out on them, the Bulldogs put together a spirited rally for 62 yards on 12 downs including six completed passes to move to the Jefferson 36. But they fell shy of a first down there by inches and Jeff gratefully accepted the ball with sixty seconds left.

Pleased and thankful to escape with the verdict, mastermind South nevertheless thought his gridders played sloppy ball, in fact their worst of the aging season. In the first half, particularly, Jeff's tackling was very hit-and-miss, mostly the latter.

Under the circumstances, though, he opined that San Jose was a rough customer, perhaps as rough as any team Jeff will meet. The Bulldogs have the personnel, and, when they don't beat themselves, they're going to win ball games.

Lagomarsino Injured

South was fit to be unfit prior to Friday's game. On the eve of the encounter, first string center Bob Lagomarsino "threw out" his knee by slipping in the school's locker room. As a consequence, "Lago" had to sit out the victory march. His vital role was cast on the untried shoulders of Junior Bob Murchison, a six-foot-one-inch 173-pounder. Murchison rose to the task splendidly and drew a "well done" remark from his coach.

South also liked the efforts of tackle Floyd Gonella, end Dave Cafferata, guard Rich Harrison, and half Ray Espinoza on defense. And he was satisfied with the steady work of Pat McCool, Wilson, and Gallagher.

Ray's Kicks Good

Tschirgi's kicking average for five boots was a nifty 44.6. Three of his punts with the help of the roll sailed for 60, 57 and 50 yards, respectively. There kept the Bulldogs deep in their own territory, which was very fortunate.

Gallagher toted 21 times for 60 yards net. Kliem, a very valuable hand, collected 36 yards on eight runs. His two TDs gave him 25 points in P.A.L. play, four touchdowns and an extra point.

Besides Bondi and Zimmerman, standouts for San Jose were halfback John Giammona and Bill Aimonetti, fullback. Several Bulldog linemen did a pretty fair job of defending against the land assaults in their area.

Donely Strikes Out 21 Batters In 7-2 Triumph

Right hander Charley Donley made sure Angelo Craviotto's debut as manager of the Marie's Place nine wouldn't be spoiled last Sunday in a Class A League game at Ocean View.

For six innings young Donley pitched no-hit, no-run ball against Gregory's All Stars and then went on to win, 7-2.

Except for his foes' two-hit, two-run rally in the seventh and final inning, Charley was superb.

He struck out 21 Gregory batters and limited them to four hits. Donley fanned the first six men to face him.

Craviotto, a consistent hitter in the past, contributed quite a load for his own cause. The spirited second baseman got three hits.

This Sunday on the Ocean View Diamond No. 2, Marie's Place tangles with another Daly City sandlot club, Satan AC.

The Satans were fired up last week in boiling the Johnson Tamale team, 9-5.

UNBEATEN DALY CITY ELEVEN TESTS PANTHERS

By Roy Hurlbert

Over the big one with San Jose, Glenn South's Jefferson Indians go after their third consecutive Peninsula Athletic League victory tonight against injury-riddled Burlingame on the Burlingame field.

Hostilities begin with an 8 o'clock kickoff.

South and his gridders aren't going to let down tonight even though the going figures a might easier than the Bulldog fracas.

Record Reliable

Burlingame's 1-2 record fails to impress, but it's only right.

They showed great promise in their inaugural game with a 19-13 win over San Jose. Then came mishap after mishap.

From then on, Elmer Schaake and his T formation Panthers have had misery. Injuries to four key men took its toll as Blingum lost to Lincoln, 23-0, and last Friday to Sequoia, 12-0.

First to be put out of commission was halfback Chris Vlassis, an All-PAL possibility. Vlassis broke his leg in a practice tilt with Merced before the San Jose opener.

Stan Harrop, a journeyman guard, cracked a wrist bone two weeks ago in practice and he's out, too.

Two More Blows

Last week Schaake could have been fitted for a straight jacket. Two stalwart tackles, Neil Strain and Ben Lloyd were declared out indefinitely. Right tackle Strain sustained severe internal injuries in practice, while Lloyd was placed on the sick list for two weeks with a leg hurt from the Cherokee affair.

Schaake has had to make all kinds of lineup adjustments from week to week.

Crippled as they are, South expects Burlingame to be up for the game as the Panthers have been in past scuffles with Indian teams.

Lago, Pete Are Ready

Jefferson will take the field physically fit compared to their opponents. South is pleased with the hurried recovery of tackle Pete Kopcrak, 223, and center Bob Lagomarsino, 185.

Kopcrak's shoulder dislocation in the Sequoia conquest is mended and the husky lad's doctor says he is okay for action.

Lagomarsino hurt his knee last Thursday in a locker room accident and didn't suit up for the San Jose struggle.

As a precaution, South says he will use the pair only if necessary tonight. Evidently, Jefferson can afford to save these valuable first-stringers until they are both ready to go in sound condition.

Indians Paper Choice

On paper, Jeff rates the edge. The Panthers were in fair shape when they bopped San Jose by six points. The Tribe got the job done by eight. Burlingame didn't score on Sequoia and Jeff took the Cherokees apart, 25-0.

But, as South concludes, don't rely on that comparative score business. Look what happened the last two years each time Jefferson and Burlingame met. The Indians, favorites in both, were upset, not once but both times.

The Indians average about 10 pounds heavier up front. Burlingame's backs go nine pounds lighter than the Indian carrier average of 166.

Outdoor Sports Are Big State Business

An estimated one billion dollars is tied up in fishing and hunting in the state of California, according to the Division of Fish and Game.

Present figures indicate that about 1,470,000 Californians own fishing and hunting licenses and their expenditures in keeping up with the sports run pretty close to the billion mark.

Expenses mainly mount through need of equipment and transportation to the field and stream areas. License and permit fees are incidental.

Biologist Tatooes California Salmon

In the best traditions of seafarers, a group of California salmon have just been decorated with the unofficial marine mark of distinction — tattoo marks — placed on their tails by the Division of Fish and Game.

Biologist Howard McCully of the Bureau of Marine Fisheries is the artist. He believes that the tattooed dots will be a big help in keeping track of individuals in a school of study fish.

Using a code system of three variable dots and seven different colors, the young salmon are tattooed at the rate of 25 an hour.

More than a hundred of the five-inch fish are now on display at the Steinhardt Aquarium in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park.

McCully's current assignment is to check the reliability of fish age and length estimates made from fish scales. The tattooed salmon will be measured at various ages. Individual records will be compared with scale ring growth estimates used by fisheries workers for many years.

The experiment marks the first successful use of tattooing in fish studies.

California's land area is greater than that of the British Isles.

San Francisco's Golden Gate Park has 14 miles of bridle paths.

Quinones Works Easy As Sartos Win, 12-7

Right hander Gil Quinones had an easy time of it last Sunday in pitching Sartos to a 12-7 win over the San Francisco Indians at Potrero Hill.

Gilbert was assaulted for 11 hits, but Sartos blasted 16 for him and won going away.

Sterling, Mossman, and shortstop Santiago all got three hits for Sartos.

This week end Sartos have a bye and will take a rest.

Professor To Lecture On Tibet At SMJC Meet

Professor Frederic Spiegelberg of Stanford, author and world traveler, will speak before the Community Hall at San Mateo Junior College Monday evening.

His topic will be his travels in Tibet and he will show color motion pictures on that country.

The public is invited to attend the program without charge. Starting time is 7:30 o'clock.

Sheriff McGrath Organizes County Civilian Defense

Sheriff James J. McGrath this week organized his corps of auxiliary deputies for civilian defense at a meeting in the courthouse at Redwood City.

More than 85 men from all sections of San Mateo county attended and volunteered their services to the sheriff for defense work. R. J. Harris, San Carlos, was chosen to be secretary of the group.

Plans were discussed for a full program of training, and Sheriff McGrath urged the corps to fully familiarize itself with all the important factors of civilian defense throughout the county. He cited the need of thorough knowledge in everything that would insure the security and protection of residents in case of emergency.

The sheriff informed the auxiliary deputies they will be given special civilian defense equipment as a means of identification, and that just as soon as the 100 mark has been reached they will be sworn in for duty. Training of the corps will be done directly under McGrath by Deputy Sheriff Frank Marlowe, assigned by the sheriff to handle the civilian defense program in his office. Under the sheriff's supervision Marlowe will have the full cooperation of Chief Deputy Walter Moore, who attended the meeting last night with McGrath and Marlowe.

The sheriff informed the auxiliary deputies of the Sheriff's Advisory Committee, formed last week by representatives from all over the county, with Thomas Culligan, Jr., San Mateo, as chairman. He told the deputies they were invited to attend the meeting of the committee to be held at the courthouse in Redwood City next Monday night.

Since January 1, 1943, when Governor Earl Warren assumed office, to the present, the California Highway Commission has allocated to cities, for completed major highway projects, for major projects under construction and for budgeted major projects in the counties of Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, Monterey, Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, San Mateo, San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa and Solano a total of $186,669,320.

This sketch by Van de Goes, Bridge Department, Division of Highways, is designed to show the progress made in the development of freeways and major highways in the ten counties during the Warren administration.

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

And the milk flowed like wine. At least that's the way it seems on Rio Verde street.

All during the past week, dairy stock has been arriving at the Cow Palace, and show or no show, the cows must be milked. And these cattle are the cream of the crop. All prize dairy stock that gives more cow juice to the square inch than you would believe possible. After the show is officially underway, all the milk is contracted for by the dairies, but while they are arriving and getting settled in, all this milk presents more or less of a problem. As a result, many of the residents of Bayshore send their youngsters up ther with containers to be filled at milking time. Seeing the cream settle and find it fills half a bottle is a sight to behold. Cottage cheese, custard, and even a bit of butter are additional bonuses.

Speaking of the show at the Cow Palace, it is noted that there will be an added attraction this year. The Craft Shows Carnival is setting up in front of the main building, and will run every day of the Exposition. Sounds like fun but will any of the parents be able to find their youngsters at all that week? Beware of the hookey players teacher. There are bound to be some curious maladies that cause a few absentees in the near future, the foremost being a severe case of Carnivalitis.

Club Meeting

The Bayshore Improvement Club will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening, October 27, at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. All of you residents interested in community welfare are invited down to get acquainted and discuss problems of the district, be they large or small. The meeting will be held in the Sanitation Hall on Geneva avenue at Schwerin street.

Mrs. Rachel Higgins is the new chief of Den No. 3. Billy Johnson, Boy Scout, moved this summer, and Vernon Haines replaced him as den chief. These Boy Scouts who act as den chiefs are actually the ones in charge of the meetings, with the den mothers looking on in capacity of supervisors.

Miss Fitsgerald, Bayshore elementary school principal, is going to hold a four-part study class on the three R's as they are taught today. Many parents have noted that methods of teaching have changed in many respects from those used when they went to school, so a state-wide program is being put into effect to answer many of the questions that are asked, and to show the added advantage of the new methods.

The first class in Bayshore will be held on Thursday, November 16, between 2 and 3 p.m. at Bayshore school auditorium. All interested people are urged to attend.

Dance

The Mr. & Mrs. Club are giving a dance this Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock at the Administration building in the Project. They are raffling off a turkey, and the tickets are on sale now. You do not have to be present to win the bird. Carl Alt's Ork will be on hand to supply at least some of the noise, so come on down. Dream yourself up a costume for the occasion and provide some of the giggles.

The Brownies and the Girl Scouts are giving parties for themselves for Hallowe'en. The Brownies will have their party on Monday afternoon, at the Administration building in the Project. The Girl Scouts will have their party on Monday afternoon also, at the home of Mrs. Dobbs in the village.

The young adult group of the Bayshore Baptist Church had a hobo hard-time Hallowe'en party Thursday evening at the church. They broke out their Hallowe'en costumes for a review, and all the usual games were played. Refreshments were served, and a good time was had by all.

Choir Open

A junior choir for children from nine to twelve years old has been started again at the church. Mrs. Amos is the director and all interested youngsters would be welcome. Drop down at rehearsal at four o'clock on any Friday afternoon.

The big day is fast approaching. Tuesday is the day of the parade. The kiddie parade at Bayshore school, that is. All of you folks should come down and watch this turnout. It is really something to behold. The youngsters all go to school Tuesday afternoon in their costumes, from the little ones right on up. The larger children bring their little brothers and sisters who are under school age along with them. They are grouped by their teachers, and the parade is on, round and round the school grounds. Some of the costumes are really charming, and some of them are really funny, but these little tiny tots are a show in themselves, either marching proudly along, or being dragged along by the older ones. The school band turns out to play a series of marches, so all pomp and ceremony is on display. It will start about 1:15, so be on hand.

Carnival

The same afternoon, at 1 o'clock, the big Bayshore PTA Carnival will get underway in the auditorium. A great deal of time and material has gone into making this a show the kids will really enjoy. There will be game booths, all sorts of refreshments, and a super-dooper spook room for the small fry, very satisfactorily haunted. Tell the kids to save their pennies and not to miss the Carnival at school. The booths will stay open all day and on up until 8 o'clock at night, in order to give you big kids a chance to take it in and throw a bean bag or two and eat a hot dog.

Bethel Lutheran Church Observes Reformation

"The Return to God's Testimonies" will be the subject of the Reverend Herbert P. Schroeder in special Reformation Day services at Bethel Lutheran Church, Alemany boulevard and Huron avenue, this Sunday.

Sunday school is conducted at Bethel Lutheran Church at 9:30 in the morning. Worship services begin at 10:45.

The Adult Bible Class, which meets each Sunday at 9:30 a.m., currently is following the course of study entitled, "First Things."

Daly City Fisherman Hauls In Three Salmon

Using anchovy for bait, Joseph R. Frank, 10 Lake Vista avenue, landed three salmon off the Golden Gate recently.

Frank's dandies included fish weighing five, twelve and fifteen pounds, respectively.

He was fishing aboard the "Merrimac" with Skipper Fred Bobsien when he made the catch limit.

California is second to Texas in railroad mileage.

Colma Church Begins Drive For Enlargement

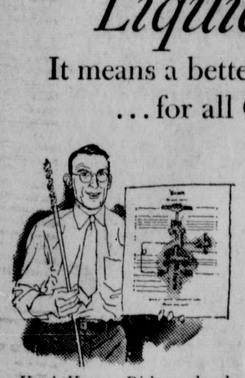
Colma First Baptist Church members begin a pre-Thanksgiving enlargement campaign tonight, October 27, in a meeting at the church.

The meeting starts at 7:30. It will include "home visitation" to be followed by refreshments in the home of one of the members.

Regular Sunday service at the Colma Community Center starts at 10 a.m. with Sunday school. Morning worship is held at 11 o'clock. A 7:30 service is conducted in the evening.

Liquid Gold

It means a better living for you ... for all California



Here's Herman Dickman, head of the Agricultural Departmen. of Lodi Union High School. His job is to turn out tomorrow's successful ranchers and growers. A substantial portion of the funds that support San Joaquin County Schools comes from P.G. and E. taxes. And, P.G. and E., by the way, is California's largest property taxpayer.

Le Roy W. Snyder is a Pump Test Engineer in our Stockton Division. His job is to see that customers' pumping plants deliver the maximum amount of water at the minimum cost. P. G. and E. maintains 9 pump testing crews, saves many thousands of dollars for its customers, makes no charge for the 7000 tests it runs annually.

Irrigation water is California's liquid gold. Pumped onto farm land in P.G. and E. territory it increases average annual per-acre crop values twenty times!

This water, electrically pumped, helps grow 231 different crops; it has done much to make agriculture the basic industry of the state, with a gross annual farm income of 2 billion dollars. This huge sum flows into the channels of trade, creating jobs and prosperity in the cities as well as on the farms.

Yet, P.G. and E. electric power for irrigation pumping on the farm is so low in cost that, on the average, it constitutes only 3.5% of the farmers' crop production expense. And the rates the average farmer pays—just as the rates you pay—are among the lowest in the nation.

Paul Bertoli of Santa Rosa, like thousands of other California truck gardeners, cannot afford to wait for the rains; depends, instead, upon ample low-cost electric power to operate 3 deep-well pumps to flood his acres. So electric power shall continue ample on farm and in city alike, plentiful reserves have already been provided by P.G. and E.'s $800,000,000. postwar expansion program, with still more facilities being built.

Meet Kenneth Peake, dairyman, whose Claravale Guernsey Farm near Los Gatos is famous for its rich dairy products. Low-cost electric power has been a big factor in helping Mr. Peake toward success, as it has thousands of other dairymen, farmers and ranchers. Peake uses almost a dozen electric helpers; even his fence is electric. Yet his average monthly electric bill is only $24. "I don't see how anyone could beat the rates," he says.

Roosevelt Urges Voters To Aid Democrats

James Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for Governor, today issued an appeal to the voters to make up their mind now to exercise their right of franchise on Election Day, November 7, and urged them to support the Democratic ticket.

He pointed to the records of his fellow Democratic candidates, Helen Gahagan Douglas for the United States Senate and Edmund G. Brown, candidate for Attorney General. He said that these candidates are capable and eminently qualified for the offices to which they aspire.

Roosevelt cited recent accomplishments of the Democratic Party to prove that its candidates merit the approval of the voting public.

"Despite the drastic revision of work schedules the Korean War forced on the 81st Congress," Roosevelt said, "more chapters were added to the long record of achievement toward a long-range internal stability. One of the notable accomplishments was the new Social Security Act, extending coverage to an additional 10 million Americans and increasing old-age benefits."

He said that the Democratic Congress had added a middle-income housing program to the strong low-rent and slum clearance program created in the first session. Rent controls were extended to the end of the year.

"The record shows that the Democratic Party is indeed the party of the people," Roosevelt said. "The gains obtained by labor and the steps toward greater security for aged and infirm persons came through the Democratic Party. It deserves the continued support and confidence of the voters."

Church Plans Two-Day Bazaar

Plans are in the developing stage for next week's Community Presbyterian Church Bazaar, a two-day affair, November 3 and 4, at the church on 87th avenue and Junipero Serra boulevard.

All kinds of booths will be set up to help raise money for the church's educational fund.

Daly City Residents Welcome Nixon

A delegation of Daly City residents headed by Thomas Callan Sr. and Thomas Callan Jr. met Congressman Richard Nixon at Mills Field Monday afternoon prior to San Mateo county's final election rally honoring the U. S. Senate candidate.

Flying here on the last leg of a whirlwind tour of key northern California communities, Nixon and his wife defied icing conditions and bad weather to keep the important speaking date in San Mateo county.

Observing "Nixon Day" along with other communities in California, Daly City campaign leaders stepped up their campaign to elect the Whittier congressman to the senate.

In his brief address in San Mateo, Nixon denied reports that national figures, including Senator Joseph McCarthy, had been secretly invited to appear in his behalf during the election campaign. He said he believed California voters were intelligent enough to make up their minds without outside help.

In the campaign that has kept him on a vigorous schedule, including as many as eleven appearances in a single day, Nixon said he has observed the same kind of "groundswell" of enthusiasm that made it possible for him to overcome odds and win the congressional election in his district four years ago.

Funeral services were conducted at the W. C. Lasswell chapel Monday for Mrs. Fredreka L. Volkman who died Thursday at her home at Washington and Bryant streets, Colma.

A resident of Colma for the past 34 years, Mrs. Volkman was the wife of the late Frederick Volkman. She is survived by four sons, Henry, Leslie, Fred and George Volkman; two daughters, Mrs. Florence Mooney and Mrs. Anita Wright; and grandchildren, Henry, Leslie, Robert, Ronald and William Volkman, Mrs. Anita Pitcher, Mrs. June Wiley and Mrs. Muriel Jones. Group To Hold Hallowe'en Party

The Young Peoples Group of the Grace Presbyterian church will stage a Hallowe'en party of their own tomorrow night in the home of Margaret Michelsen, 549 Hanover street.

Sponsoring the party are co-leaders Bill and Sylvia Hassett. The committee of Jack Patten, Carol Clark, Dewayne Soares, Margaret Michelsen, and Jim Dowell will assist with arrangements.

KEEP OIL LEVEL UP

One advantage in keeping the supply of crankcase oil at the full level is that it results in consumption economy, advises the National Automobile Club. Generally speaking, the lower the level the hotter the oil gets in use, which means that more of it evaporates. This fact is worth bearing in mind, particularly in long-distance driving when consumption is greater than usual.

MAKE IT CLEAR

It's not what you mean to do—it's how you do it that counts in traffic safety, points out the California State Automobile Association. A carelessly given arm signal, for instance, may be misunderstood with disastrous results.

STAY IN PROPER LANE

When driving along a multiple-lane freeway, get into the proper lane and stay in it, advises the National Automobile Club. Weaving from one lane to another may gain you a few minutes time, but it may also cost you your life.

Proposition No. 6 is no "pension measure"!

It makes no change in pension eligibility requirements.

By licensing every known form of commercial gambling, and taking a cut from the profits, Proposition No. 6—according to its promoters—would provide a new fund for payment of present pension benefits now being met by general taxation.

But before one cent would be paid for pensions, all expenses of a newly created, self-chosen 5-Man Gambling Commission would have to be paid in full!

Under Proposition No. 6, gambling spots would be exempted from local taxes—yet local communities would be burdened by the huge cost of increased police protection against the horde of racketeers, gangsters and hoodlums that Proposition No. 6 would attract to California.

Old Glory Aux. 2044 Visits Men In P. A. Hospital

Members of Old Glory Auxiliary 2044 V. F. W. added another notch to their service record as they made two more visits to Palo Alto Veterans' Hospital last week.

On Tuesday, Ethel Dorn, Bonnie Ellenwood, Marie Gehrig and Clara Poket exchanged conversations with the wheel chair patients in Ward 8. They also served refreshments to the servicemen.

The following evening, Old Glory members and the "Haywire" Orchestra of the Eagles, 1848, entertained the patients in Ward 11 with the help of Matalan Auxiliary 2068.

Eagles Joe Lewkowitz, with a bull fiddle, George Borraca, with an accordian, and GFeorge Minzoner with a "gui-tar" played for two hours while the patients danced.

Cigarettes and refreshments were doled out throughout the evening.

Old Glory members who made the night enjoyable were Marie Gehrig, Mary Conti, Catherine McKeown, Maude Bauer, Juanita Paulter, Clara Poket, Ethel Dorn, Bonnie Ellenwood, Shirley Walker, Jackie Walker and Marjorie Johnson.

Old Glory Post members made two other trips of duty last week. Tuesday, Ethel Dorn and Clara Poket went to San Mateo to instruct members of the new Shore View Auxiliary which will be instituted October 28 in San Mateo.

On Friday night, Eleanor Cochran, Marie Gehrig and Clara Poket attended the official inspection of the Ocean Shore Auxiliary 5472 at Sharp Park.

Tormey Tells Meet Schools Front Line Of Democracy

Schools are the core of democracy and in that core is to be found the fate of the American way of life, according to James R. Tormey, candidate for San Mateo County Superintendent of Schools, in a speech Tuesday before the DAR chapter at the home of Mrs. Albert McLain in San Mateo.

He challenged the effect of spy and traitor trials from Judith Coplan held before Judge Medina on down to the more recent Gold case, saying:

"Every one of these traitors was a college graduate, some with Ph.D. degrees. What in our educational system was taught these people that failed to instill in them an appreciation for the values of the American way? What was missing that caused them to sell their country, not for gold, but for the apparent love of a foreign ideology?

"A part of the answer is that in our schools as well as in the press, the radio and the home, we sold democracy short through the twenties and thirties. Most of us didn't do this intentionally, for we were too busy being 'objective,' too busy proving that George Washington probably did tell a lie and that Abraham Lincoln was a clever politician. We failed to realize that the youngsters whom we were trying to influence were not getting the basic knowledge and the appreciation of the things which have made America.

"The correction would be to have our schools become active, positive salesmen of the American way of life. We need the help today of the home, press and pulpit, but the major responsibility faces the schools. Many teachers will need help in this positive approach.

"That help must come from fellow teachers, from the district school administrators and from the county school office.

"The record and the issues are plain and clear. The American way of life is facing a fight for its life. The schools must become aggressive and positive in that fight. The school people are virtually unanimous in their willingness to do their part, but leadership and support must be given them."

WATCH THAT LIGHT

If the dash instrument that keeps you informed of the generator's functioning happens to be a jewel light arrangement, keep an eye on the condition of the bulb, advises the National Automobile Club. It should burn always during the starting process. If it does not, have the bulb replaced to avoid the more expensive job of a battery recharging, which might be necessary if the warning device were not working.

ON THE HEELS OF RED KOREANS—An American tank advancing against retreating Communists passes a North Korean vehicle burning by the roadside. (Department of Defense photo).

RELOADS JETS—Leonard H. Dalton, seaman apprentice, USN, of Houston, Texas, on plane receives a belt of 20-mm ammunition from Gene A. Russan, airman, USN, of Woodward, Oklahoma, to reload the expended ammunition boxes of a panther jet of a task force 77 aircraft carrier. Panthers are used primarily to intercept enemy aircraft and in close support of U. S. ground forces.

Plymouth Has New Look Both Coming and Going

The 1950 Plymouth car, with important styling changes and improvements for safety and riding comfort, will go on display in dealer showrooms throughout the country January 12.

There are new lines in the silhouette which give the new Plymouth a longer, lower, more streamlined appearance. The changes are readily apparent whether viewed from front, rear, or side.

Rear fenders, which are bolted on for economical removal in case repairs are necessary, have been restyled and lengthened. A larger rear window on club coupes and four-door sedans, slightly greater over-all width, and alterations on the rear deck provide a longer, heavier, road-hugging appearance for all models. The grille has been simplified and made more massive. It consists of two large horizontal bars with a curved-down top member and a single vertical bar at the center. Above the grille the Plymouth name plate appears in larger block letters, and a bigger, more colorful medallion has been placed over the name plate.

Described as "Packed with value and ready to prove it," the new Plymouth was characterized by D. S. Eddins, president of Plymouth, as "The greatest car value we have ever offered the public."

"When we speak of value," Eddins said, "we mean that we have combined beauty with sensible styling, that we have achieved big-car performance with small-car economy, and that the mechanical excellence of which we have always been proud has maintained its high level."

The front and rear tread have been increased, a factor which increases stability, eases tire loading stress on curves, and enhances the car's general appearance. Thirty-two per cent larger than on previous models, the new rear window increases visibility and its lines blend into the car's new streamlining motif. The window is set in a newly designed locking rubber seal.

There are larger bumpers on both front and rear. In addition to providing greater protection for the grille, rear deck and fenders, the bumpers add materially to the general appearance of massiveness.

The theme of simplicity which has been carried out in the medallion and name plate on the front has been continued in the ornamentation of the rear deck. The block-letter name plate, the license plate light ornament, the license plate recess, and the T-shaped luggage compartment handle are styled to accent the car's low, sleek lines. Combination tail lights and stop lights are set into each rear fender.

The redesigned instrument panel provides new backgrounds of transparent gunmetal on spun aluminum for the gauge dials, speedometer, radio dial, and clock. The gunmetal finish is also used on the radio grille screen. There are larger rotary switch knobs which are easier to operate.

Features for performance, comfort and safety which were previously introduced in the Plymouth line have been retained. The car has characteristic interior roominess, ample head and leg room, and wide, deep chair-height seats. The six-cylinder, 97-horsepower engine has a 7 to 1 compression ratio. The combination ignition and starter switch, automatic electric choke, super-cushion tires, safe-guard hydraulic brakes and safety-rim wheels are among the "high-priced car" features contained in the new Plymouth.

LAST CLEAR CHANCE

The law holds that when an accident occurs, the responsibility lies with the person who had "the last clear chance" to avoid it. This means, says the California State Automobile Association, that even though another driver has done something wrong, you may be held responsible if you had a reasonable chance to avoid a collision and failed to use that chance.

Check That Plea For Trail Funds

It has come to the attention of the California Mission Trails Association that certain individuals are soliciting funds in the coastal area for advertising and publicity purposes.

It is reported that these persons have inferred that they have the approval and support of the Mission Trails Association in their solicitations.

There is absolutely no truth in such statements. The California Mission Trails Association has its own employees to contact people within the area regarding subscriptions to their advertising and publicity fund.

No outside group has ever been encouraged to solicit funds for the Association. And, as has so often been proven, most of these outside men or groups are only interested in taking a profit for their work; whereas the Mission Trails Association operates strictly on a non-profit basis — ALL funds going for the promotion of increasing tourist travel and revenue in the area.

DC Citizens Actively Support Warren Campaign

Daly City and Colma have large and active organizations formed as part of the county-wide Warren for Governor co-ordinating committee, according to Anthony J. Gaggero and Mrs. Stella L. Jensen, chairmen of the men's and women's groups.

Gaggero said today, "A large percentage of our population in the north end of the county is made up of veterans. I have a number of them serving on my committee, both Democrats and Republicans, and we are determined that Governor Warren shall be re-elected on November 7, to carry on his broad program of state benefits to veterans.

"California leads all other states in its program of education, rehabilitation, and state loans for homes and farms. The Governor has just signed into law legislation which gives men serving in the present war crisis all the privileges and benefits of veterans."

Gaggero's committee includes Louis Nava Sr., Ed Weisenburger, William Lagomarsino, Raymond Ottoboni, Ricco Lagomarsino, J. G. Collins, Peter Bordson, Martin Pahlka, Eugene Lawery, James Halloran, Emil G. Pahlka, Ben Magnuson, George Jester, Henry Beffa, Floyd Harris and Felix Foreman.

Mrs. Jensen has on her committee Mesdames Everett Heagney, Tina Hollingsworth, Margaret Pauline Brown, Ray Bate, Vivian Pahlka, Erma Magnuson, Helen Jester, Eva Beffa, Julia V. Jordan and Catherine Forman.

Broadmoor's active committee is headed by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brugge and includes Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Magoon, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Attebery, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick C. Patey, Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Hanrihan, and Mesdames Edith Meitz, Wilhelmina R. Johns, Irene W. Hess, Mary Viola Murphy and Emily C. Hagar.

In Brisbane, a citizen's committee has been organized, and is actively at work headed by Mrs. Juanita Burgess, it includes Mesdames M. F. Jensen, Dorothy Radoff, Gloria Wipprecht, Byron Jenson, Frieda Pistohl, Beth Duncan, and Bernice Delbon.

Tormey Committee Chairman Named

Michael B. O'Connor of San Mateo, co-chairman of the James R. Tormey-for-School Superintendent committee in San Mateo County, today announced that Sam D. Merk of San Mateo has been named general chairman of the committee.

Merk, a member for six years of the State Board of Education, is a former school teacher and newspaper publisher.

Other co-chairmen are Col. J. L. Connolly of Menlo Park and Mrs. Charles Raudebaugh of South San Francisco. In accepting the chairmanship, Merk said:

"I am for James R. Tormey because he is not a political opportunist trying to kick himself upstairs. As a candidate of the people, Tormey presents a seven point platform calling for improving fundamental education . . . . . I like the man because he knows the importance of basic training which includes the three R's, and he knows the value of cooperation; I like his sincere, scholarly approach to the essential problems of education."

Women Named To Demo Committee

That women will play a major part in the final phases of the Democratic campaigns in the county was assured today with the announcement of the appointment of Mrs. Harry Otto, of Burlingame, and Mrs. Bert Rosenblum, of Atherton, as chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the women's division of the San Mateo County Democratic Centarl Committee.

In naming them, Marion H. Kent, county Democratic chairman, completed the full master plan organizational effort to get out the vote on Tuesday, November 7.

Arnold Johnson, master plan director, stated that precinct captains are being rapidly selected in each community, young Democratic clubs are being re-activated and special crews are being assigned to distribute election materials and make telephone calls the last few days preceding the election date.

Richard Armstrong, committee treasurer, reported that branch headquarters for the southern area of the county had been opened at 2003 Broadway, Redwood City. Main headquarters are located at 308 Baldwin avenue, San Mateo.

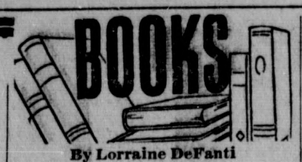
WHY CHANGE FROM EXPERIENCE AND INTEGRITY TO???
LET'S KEEP A GOOD SHERIFF



By Lorraine DeFanti
DC Librarian (jg)

From the pen of a local resident comes the charming story of "Little Britches."

Author Ralph Moody, now residing in Burlingame, has created in his first novel a delightful biographical sketch of his family. The impetus for the story is given when the family moves to a Colorado ranch. This immigration gives rise to an account of life on a western farm. In many diversified scenes depicting family life, the author describes his New Hampshire family who gradually learned to take natural and economic obstacles in its stride.

The plot centers around eight-year-old Ralph, whose nickname, "Little Britches," provides an appropriate title for the story. Here is a boy typical in his love for animals and excitement. One of the most enjoyable episodes is that in which he begins an extensive equestrian training period under the able supervision of an all-around "cow-poke," who goes by the unpretentious nome of simply "Hi."

As a result of the friendly interest of this amiable cowboy, with whom the nickname "Little Britches" originated, young Ralph realizes one of his greatest ambitions: Winning the main riding event at the local rodeo and roundup. Truly, then this was the zenith of attainment for the youngster that year.

Although the real flesh and blood of the book lies in the profound partnership and give and take between a sensitive father and a devoted son, other phases of the story are not to be ignored. The author relates the disastrous effects of a tornado, the petty politics and corruption involved in a fight over an irrigation ditch, as well as numerout other episodes which contribute to the book's enjoyable reading matter.

One cannot but be impressed with every member of the Moody family, who each is his own particular way endeavors to adapt himself to the endless seasonal activities of life on a ranch-farm.

Little Britches is somewhat reminiscent of Marjorie Rawling's Pulitzer Prize novel, "The Yearling." There is a similarity between both books in that the father and son relationship portrayed in the book under review, and the Jody and Pa relationship in "The Yearling" constitute one of the main themes of each story. Incidentally, the illustrations for both novels were done by Edward Shenton.

Taken as a whole, here is a delightful and wholesome account of a particular phase of the Moody family's activities. Though their struggle for existence and survival became almost unbearable at times, the family's integrity and solidarity never wavered. The author aptly conveys this thought and impression to the reader without becoming overly sentimental.

The simplicity of style and theme is refreshing, and the book is general in its appeal. I believe that particularly in the characterization of the father and son, the story is excellently handled. The New York Times Book Review remarks that this story of a boy and his family on a western ranch is one of the recent books which in the opinion of its staff is of particular literary interest.

The Daly City Public Library is the place to obtain the book which will acquaint you with "Little Britches."

Shattuck Endorsed By Dean Of Bar

Joseph Scott, Los Angeles lawyer since 1894 and one of the deans of the California Bar, this week announced his support of Edward S. Shattuck for the office of state Attorney General.

Mr. Scott, also prominent in Catholic lay circles and Dean Emeritus of the law school, Loyola College (L. A.) made this statement:

"The office of Attorney General, in my opinion, must be in sympathy and harmony with the Governor's office. There must be a mutual understanding between these two public officials and a sympathy for their joint efforts to administer the laws of California.

Mr. Shattuck is widely known throughout California. He has traveled into every part of the state and has a thorough knowledge of its problems and the present vital importance of law enforcement. He has surrounded himself with able and experienced members of our profession, who have endorsed him for that high office as being fully equipped professionally to do justice to its responsibilities.

"Above all, he is an unflinching, uncompromising opponent of Communism and all other subversive influences which are interfering with the freedom-loving people of America. We of California should select Mr. Shattuck as best suited at this time for the growing responsibilities of Attorney General."

St. Finn Halloween Dance Set Saturday

In the spirit of the month, the St. Finn Club this Saturday evening will present a Halloween costume dance in the St. Finn Barr auditorium, San Francisco.

The dance will get underway at 8 o'clock, and everyone is requested to appear in costume. A prize will be given for the best costume.

June Becker is chairman for the affair, assisted by: Andrea Streithors and Stellamae Hart, publicity; Jim Budet, tickets; Andrea Striethorst, refreshments; Roy Hineau, finance; Joseph Moville Jr., general chairman.

Endorses Tormey

Mrs. Pauline Brown, prominent civic leader in Colma and the northern part of San Mateo county, today endorsed James R. Tormey for County Superintendent of Schools, saying:

"I am for James R. Tormey in the general election, November 7, because I strongly favor the second point of his platform in which he would, if elected, furnish leadership in re-emphasizing fundamental education and the teaching of the three R's. The use of such modern mediums as the radio, television, adding machines and typewriters is excellent, but they are not foundation stones for a basic education.

"Mr. Tormey has an unusually clear understanding of this vital principle in modern education pro- perintendent of Schools and hope cedure. I heartily endorse his can- that he will receive generous supdacy for the office of County Su- port in every community."

...BLACK MAGIC CAKE
Harry's known many a witch (of sorts) in his day, and he's garnered this recipe for the famed "Black Magic" cake...it's right from the witch's mouth, and as tasty as the old hag is ugly.
...MINCE PIE
No Halloween party is complete without mince pie, and especially this pie. Harry guarantees it will please even Uncle Ed, who takes to most pies like Democrats take to Republicans.
...PUMPKIN PIE
Harry's taken the pumpkin right off his own vine for this taste treat.

ELECTION -- NOVEMBER 7

SOCIAL SECURITY

By Edward J. Foley
Manager of the San Mateo
Social Security Office

One of the important features of the amended social security law is the extension of old-age and survivors insurance to regular household workers. Approximately 1500 people on San Mateo county will be affected by this phase of social security beginning on the first of next January.

This new law will be important to the household workers — the maid or the cook — and also to her employer. The household worker regularly employed in one household will become eligible to build toward Federal insurance benefit payments; the household employer of such a worker will have certain responsibilities for the social security tax and report of wages paid to the worker.

To make this as easy as possible for the people involved, the Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Bureau and the Depatrment of Internal Revenue have jointly devised a simple report slip for this purpose. It provides space for the household worker's name and social security number, and a space for recording the total amount of the employee's cash wages during a three-month period.

A three-month period is a calendar period. That is, three months beginning with January, April, July and October. The household employer who hires a maid, cook, or any other household worker on a regular basis will keep such a report and send it, together with the social security tax to the collector of internal revenue at the end of each three-month period.

The tax is three per cent of the regular household worker's cash wages for the three-month period. Half of this tax (1½%) may be deducted from the worker's cash wages; the employer will contribute the other 1½%.

Now about that word "regular." A household worker is a "regular" worker, if he or she works on at least 24 different days for the one household employer in a three-month period and is paid wages of not less than $50. She is still "covered" during the next three months if she is paid $50. Nc report need be kept on a worker employed for an average of less than two days a week because such a worker would not meet the 24-day test for work in that household.

The term "cash wages" is used because meals and board cannot be counted as wages in determining the $50 minimum for social security coverage. The household employer, however, is not concerned with any wages the worker may earn elsewhere.

On the household worker's part, it is important that she or he have a social security card. Between now and January 1, 1951, when the new social security law goes into effect, those regular household workers who have never had a social security number, or have lost their card, or have changed their name should visit or write the social security office and get one.

I have mentioned cooks and maids, but butlers, practical nurses, and chauffeurs, and any other regular worker for one employer in a private household will also be considered a household worker and eligible for old-age and survivors insurance protection under the new social security law beginning in January.

If you are interested in more specific information on whether the new provisions about household workers affect you, write or call the social security office for a special leaflet on the subject. In the next article of this series I shall discuss the effect of the new law on servicemen of World War II.

During the first eight months of this year there were 15,989 reportable accidents, 25,080 persons injured, and 1,261 persons killed, while during the same period in 1949 there were 14,789 reportable accidents, 23,432 persons injured, and 1,219 persons killed. This represents an increase of 8.11 per cent, 7.73 per cent, and 3.44 per cent respectively.

EXCESSIVE OIL USE

Blue smoke coming from an automobile exhaust pipe is an idication of excessive oil consumption, according to the California State Automobile Association.

BATTERY STRAIN

Starting requirements in winter place a severe strain on the automobile battery, advises the California State Automobile Association, since a cold motor is always harder to start. For winter driving, the battery and connections should be checked and brought to maximum operating efficiency.

CALIFORNIA SPORTSMEN SPEND MILLIONS

California Division of Fish and Game estimates that California sportsmen spend more than two hundred and fifty million dollars annually on hunting and fishing activities, reports the National Automobile Club.

PG&E Pole Awakens Drowsy SF Driver

A San Francisco man, allegedly slumbering at the wheel of his car received a rude awakening Sunday morning when his machine hit a PG&E pole, police report today.

The driver, Thomas A. Duran, 666 Hamilton avenue, was not injured; however, his car will need extensive repair. The pole, located at the intersection of Niantic and Los Olivos, was snapped off at its base.

Mates and Pilots Leader Lauds Jim McGrath

High tribute to the long service of Sheriff James J. McGrath came today in a public statement from Captain C. F. May, national president, National Organization Masters, Mates and Pilots of America, Inc.

Captain May pointed out that his organization is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, Railway Labor Executives' Association and the International Transportworkers Federation.

In commenting on Sheriff McGrath's record, Captain May said: "As a citizen and Labor official, I endorse James J. McGrath for sheriff because he has proven himself to be a capable administrator, and has shown full regard for the interests of the residents of San Mateo county.

"In recognition of his services, it is not an accident that Governor Warren has designated him as coordinator of civilian defense in the San Mateo area. For these reasons I believe James J. McGrath is deserving of the support of all the citizens in the coming election in which he is seeking re-election as sheriff of our great county."

MOVIES, MIKES and TELEVISION TALK
By LYN WILSON—ANS Features

"MUSICAL COMEDY TIME" . . . is television production extravaganza — a brand new full-hour show on NBC-TV (every other Monday evening at 9:30 p.m. est). "Musical Comedy Time" brings to the TV screen some of the finest artists of stage and film in famous Broadway musical comedies. Representative of the treat in store is lovely Jeannette MacDonald who is scheduled to appear in "The Merry Widow," Martha Raye, Wilbur Evans and many other big name stars are booked for "Anything Goes," "The Chocolate Soldier," "Rio Rita," etc. For many of them it will be first appearances before the television cameras.

MORTON DOWNEY'S new Saturday show on CBS, "Refreshment Time," seems sure to give daytime radio a lift, presenting, as it does, an all star cast in a topflight variety format. In addition to the ever popular Downey song sessions, his sponsors have signed up Carmen Mastren's orchestra, the Skylarks as a peppy singing group and the piano playing sensation, Stan Freeman, for regulars on the program. "Refreshment Time" will also feature guest stars with pretty Kitty Kallen on the opening show and others of equal stature to follow. In addition to this radio show, Downey also stars on his own CBS-TV program each Friday night and is one of the most sought after guest stars in the television firmament.

RADIO'S SINGING HILLBILLY, Judy Canova, returns to the air this October via NBC Saturday evenings. Like many Hollywoodlanders, Judy dodges formality and lives quietly outside the city . . and although most people would picture her in farm togs she is actually very fashion conscious. Judy Canova has many likes and dislikes. Badminton, ping pong, tennis, making movies and cooking have her hearty cooperation while peroxide blondes, people with affected accents and those who let success go to their heads are definitely on the black list.

HANDSOME JACK BARRY, one of radio and TV's most popular stars, whose "Life Begins at 80" is seen on ABC TV Tuesday at 10-10.30 p.m. est., came to New York to be an announcer. In no time, Jack was creating his own programs. "Life Begins at 80" on which men and women over 80 discuss personal problem is his most recent. It's lively, human and humorous — and makes good sense. Jack's inspiration for this one is the fact that there are over one million octogenarians in the U.S. Today, demands for Barry's programs and emceeing are so extensive that he has formed a company to handle the many activities.

New Cancer Lab Established At U. C.

Activiation of a new weapon for the University of California's coordinated state-wide assault on the problem of cancer was revealed today by President Robert G. Sproul.

President Sproul reported that the Cancer Research Genetics Laboratory is now functioning as a vital link in the University statewide program of cancer research. Located on the Berkeley campus, the new laboratory is a part of the department of zoology.

Dr. Kenneth B. DeOme, associate professor of zoology, has been appointed director of the laboratory. The new research agency is at present located in the old Veterinary Science building. Eventually it will be housed in specially designed quarters provided for by a legislative appropriation of $160,000.

Dr. DeOme said that the laboratory has a three-fold objective. It will carry out a research program in the field of cancer genetics, an important area which had not been covered until now in the state-wide program. It will also provide appropriate animals for experimental work for all University cancer research projects. Its third function will be to serve as a kind of workshop and clearinghouse of information and techniques in cancer genetics research for researchers in other departments.

Present staff of the laboratory includes the director, Dr. DeOme, Dr. William H. Boynton, professor of veterinary science, emeritus, and two technical assistants, C. J. Olberg and M. Charlotte Frunk.

Vet Service Office Open To All G-Is

The experience and facilities of the Veterans Service Office are available to those who are called to military duty as well as to those who have already served in the armed forces, residents of San Mateo county are informed.

Inductees, and particularly reservists returning to active duty, are being urged to "do themselves and their families a favor" by registering with the Veterans Service Office some of the essential information about themselves and their dependents that may prove some day to be extremely valuable as problems arise in connection with their military service.

"They may be coping sooner than they realize with such problems as family allowance payments, reemployment rights, civil legal matters, and the like," Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer pointed out. "In addition, they may at some future time need to present claims for compensation or pension."

Records will be maintained by the Veterans Service Office on all persons going into service who will take the few minutes required to fill out a brief form containing the basic biographical facts.

These persons and their dependents are welcome now to any counsel and information they may require, obtainable at the Veterans Service Office, in the Courthouse, Redwood City.

Maximum elevation of Alameda county is 3,800 feet in the southeastern part.

POST OFFICE HOLDS BLOOD BANK DAY

Postmaster John F. Fixa today revealed that two hundred and two employees of the San Francisco Post Office donated their blood yesterday during a seven hour period on the occasion of the Second Annual Post Office Blood Bank Day.

Among the employees who donated blood were numerous ex-servicemen who gave in thanksgiving for the blood given them or their friends while serving in the European or Pacific theaters during World War II.

The men and women employees of the San Francisco Post Office who assisted the 15 staff workers from Irwin Memorial Blood Bank, donated their time, paid for the repast given the donors and also paid for the linen used.

Eighth Grade

The Eighth Grade in Room 5 has learned that in the November election 36 United States Senators will be elected, that all members of the House of Representatives will be chosen, and that many states will be choosing governors.

Several states will elect two Senators. Usually, in state elections only one Senator is a candidate for election. But this year, because of deaths and a resignation, three states, Idaho, North Carolina, and Connecticut, will have to choose two.

Seventh Grade

The Seventh Grade in Room 6 is completing the background material for the social studies unit on Russia and China. Along with this, they are reading some of the myths that have come from these early peoples. In English, preparation will begin for the Lincoln Essay contest in which all of the students will participate. In art, last week drawings were done in colored pencils which produced some very interesting effects.

In Room 5 the seventh graders who are in the Challenge group will do an audience reading of the play, "The Return of Columbus." Leonard Woodall will be King Ferdinand; Donna Hiett, Queen Isabella; Bennie Pettigrew, Christopher Columbus; Myron Kay, Prime Minister of Spain; Orin Wakefield, Prince Juan; Tom Tringali, Rui Garcia; Larry Hight, Bernardo; and Waldo Benadives as the court jester.

The Seventh Grade in Room 1 is studying how flowers are made and the work of the flowers.

Sixth Grade

On Monday, Mrs. Kagan, the art supervisor, presented an interesting lesson in water color technique to the Sixth Grade in Room 4. The oriental method of mixing paint on the brush and painting with a rolling motion of the hand was demonstrated. Some unusual Hallowe'en pictures were produced.

The afternoon session of the Sixth Grade in Room 4 is making maps of South America. The children are learning how we are being good neighbors to our neighbors to the south.

From the Sixth Grade in Room 2 Patricia Hickey went to Calistoga for the week end to see the geysers. She also saw the Old Bail Mill that has been there since 1846 before the days of the gold rush.

Fifth Grade

The Fifth Grade in Room 3 today enjoyed a moving picture story of early colonial life. The children were most keen in noticing the vast differences between the mode of life in early pioneer days and the streamlined life of today.

From the football field comes the news that the Crocker "B" team started off the season in a blaze of glory with a victory over Jefferson School. The score was close, but Crocker came out on top by the near margin of 2-0. However, Crocker "A" team lost to Jefferson 15-0. Better luck next time!

JEFFERSON

Wayne Flansburg, Ronald Poston, Judy Zacher, and Nancy Fricker gave a very interesting report this week on the nature of bees and their bee hives. Wayne brought two beehives to class and organized his group into separate committees each giving their own interpretation of bees and their beehives.

Joan Ellison and Joan Skoversky gave a unique report this Wednesday on their trips outside of California. They showed dolls, rings, bracelets, pieces of rocks, scarfs, and many other souvenirs gathered while traveling through the states of Texas, Nevada, New Mexico, and Colorado.

Adding a touch of realism to his school's celebration of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus on October 12, 1492, George Rancatore brought a replica of the Santa Maria, the name of the ship which carried Columbus to the New World.

October 29: Charles Clayton, 19 Garden lane.

U. S. MARINES ADVANCE THROUGH INCHON—These Leathernecks of the 1st Battalion, 5th Regiment, 1st Marine Division, didn't stop when they entered Inchon following the amphibious landing on the Korean coast September 15. Bob Hope Stars In Disabled Vet Movie

Theatergoers will soon see in local theaters a 10 minute sparkling musical film short starring Bob Hope and featuring 18 of America's most courageous and talented disabled veterans — all paraplegics in wheel chairs.

The movie, entitled "On Stage, Everybody!" is a colorful, entertaining one reel film produced by the Disabled American Veterans in cooperation with the Association of Motion Picture Producers. It is distributed through the patriotic efforts of the committee of general sales managers.

In thrilling scenes and specialty acts, paraplegic veterans of World War II who are confined to their wheel chairs give an amazing performance that demonstrates the bravery and tenacity of young men who have fought their way back from battlefields to civilian life.

Exciting circus feats, with high wire "walking" in a wheel chair and trapeze skill by paraplegics are combined with western scenes and songs and wheelchair jitterbugging for a sensational musical revue.

SM County Group Backing Shattuck

A San Mateo County veterans' group headed by George A. Mann is now actively engaged in the Edward S. Shattuck campaign.

Shattuck, candidate for Attorney General at the forthcoming November election, has made several appearances in the County during recent months, and as a result of his contacts with veterans' groups here has received the backing of these organizations.

George A. Mann, chairman for the countywide veterans' group working for Shattuck said that a large committee is now making plans for a pre-election drive to gain suport for their candidate.

The Graystone Wine Cellar, near St. Helena, was built in 1888 and is said to be one of the largest stone cellars in the world.

New Lissauer Furniture Store Opens November 1

Lissauer FOR MODERN at 2147 Junipero Serra boulevard which opens Wednesday, November 1, will be the newest and finest furniture center in the area.

This completely modern store will specialize in contemporary furniture . . . that which is the very finest designed "in the modern manner."

According to the owners, Gustav Lissauer and Sam R. Marks, it is time a more thorough educational job was done to help home dwellers understand and appreciate the purpose of modern furniture. It is their hope to help people truly enjoy and realize the importance and satisfaction that can be had from furnishing with this good looking yet simple functional furniture.

Inside Lissauer FOR MODERN you will find a top selection of living, dining and bedroom furniture as well as the latest in home accessories including pictures and lamps which are coordinated with ashtrays, dinnerware and various other cherished items.

And you will certainly enjoy shopping here. The store has been carefully planned for ease, convenience and accessibility. The designer, Gustav Friedman, has purposely chosen particular woods and colors to insure an air of spaciousness, charm, and at the same time friendliness. It is to be noted, also, that there is ample parking space at the front of the store.

The present site, between Westlake and Broadmoor Village and near Daly City was chosen, say the owners, because it is their sincere belief that this area has a great future. Some day, they think, this will be one of the better business districts on the coast.

Mr. Marks is now living in Park Merced, San Francisco, and was formerly with the Linn and Pynch Company. He has been a resident in this area for some time and joins with Mr. Lissauer in expressing his anxiety for Lissauer FOR MODERN to become an integral part of this progressive community.

The San Francisco Museum of Art, in San Francisco's Civic Center, contains 12 galleries, an auditorium and class rooms.

Exhibit Of Early Day SF Photos Extended

An outstanding exhibit of old photographs of San Francisco, on display at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor, has been extended, it was announced this week.

The exhibit, entitled "San Francisco from 1850 to 1906," is the work of Wyland Stanley, photographer, who for two years has searched for rare old pictures of San Francisco in its early days. Three hundred pictures are included in the exhibit.

St. Michael's To Mark Ground Breaking Festival This Week-End...Public Invited

FIRST GAME REFUGE

California established the first game refuge in the North American continent when it established the refuge at Lake Merritt in Oakland in 1870, reports the National Automobile Club.

Plans have been completed for a Gigantic Ground-Breaking Festival at St. Michael's Church, 32 Broad street, for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 27, 28 and 29.

For fifty years the district has been awaiting a parochial school, and now it is close at hand. The blue prints are ready, the contractors are being chosen and those in charge are hoping to open classes in September of 1951.

At the Fiesta there will be rides on the merry-go-round and ferris wheel for the children, opportunities to bring home the bacon, ham, linens for the year, dolls for Christmas, birds, fish and cakes for the family. There will be fun, frolic and festivity for all.

Opposition Strong Against Proposition No. 1 . . . Swig Says

Mayors, Boards of Supervisors, City Councils and Assessors thruout the State are taking the stump to officially warn their constituents of the large tax increases they will face if Proposition No. 1 is approved.

"Obviously concerned that an already heavily-burdened public may be deceived by the lure of personal property tax exemption, officials are pointing out the true facts," reports Ben Swig, chairman of the California Committee Against Proposition No. 1. "Passage of the measure," he said, "would only benefit a few large warehousemen and eastern manufacturers who as a practical matter pay little or no other California tax but that on personal property.

Swig asstrted that the initiative would lead to "nothing but chaos in our tax structure."

Bank Of America Will Continue Saturday Operation

Taking note of renewed and unfounded reports that the Bank of America had changed its position on the Saturday closing of banks, President L. M. Giannini today declared that Bank of America's view was the same now as in April, 1947, when that view was publicly stated.

"We said then that of course it would be more agreeable and convenient for all of us who work here if we could have Saturdays off," he said, "but we did not feel we would be keeping faith with those we serve if we were to gratify our own desire without a clear mandate from the public, either direct or through their chosen representatives."

Operation of banks is regulated by law, and Giannini pointed out that measures proposing to make Saturday a weekly legal holiday similar to Sunday had failed to pass the California State Legislature, which could be interpreted only one way: The representatives of the people do not want all banks closed on Saturdays.

Under the present permissive law, such banks as wish to withhold banking service from the public may close legally on Saturdays. Each bank can do as it thinks best with regard to Saturday closing. But Bank of America considers itself to be an institution for public service and will continue to operate on Saturdays as at present until the people of California decide otherwise.

U. C. Man Urges Police Psychiatry

The menace to the community of sexual psychopaths and other dangerous deviates, including cranks, may be largely eliminated in time by more extensive use of psychiatry in police work.

This was the recent statement of Dr. Douglas M. Kelley, professor of criminology in the University of California School of Criminology.

Dr. Kelley, famed as the psychiatrist who studied the Nazis at the Suremberg trials, said that while his profession offers no magic formula, it is becoming increasingly possible for a trained police psycniatrist to pick out potentially dangerous individuals in the community before they commit acts of violence.

The interest of police, district attorneys and the judiciary points to legal evolution which will facilitate the commitment of such potentially dangerous individuals, Dr. Kelley believes. He pointed out that at the present time commitment in the absence of overt acts is practically impossible.

Such individuals can be spotted only by painstaking scientific analysis of data, he continued. As an example, he stated that "case histories of known 'cranks' or other deviants can be scientifically compiled based on the repetitious complaints common to these people until enough data for commitment is obtained."

Dr. Kelley urged a general increase in the use of psychiatry by police departments over the country, not only as an instrument for the protection of society but also to aid in seeing that justice is done.

More than 300 good quality diamonds have been taken from the Cherokee District placer mines of Butte county.

SNOW SEASON WILL CALL FOR CHAINS

Snow season will soon be here and the National Automobile Club reminds all motorists not to venture into the mountain areas from now until late spring without taking along the proper tire chains. No motorist knows when he may run into a sudden flurry in the mountains and tire chains are a necessary piece of safety equipment.

TAKE THE BUMPS EASY

Don't take bumps too fast just because your car is equipped with independently sprung front wheels, advises the National Automobile Club. You may escape the shocks of such driving, but the tires do not. Manufacturers discourage driving that is harmful to the tires and that is easily possible with this particular design feature.

AVIATION ENGINEERS WORK KOREAN STYLE—Before adequate modern equipment was available, a small detachment of U. S. Army Aviation Enginers supervised Korean laborers in repairing this damaged runway. Supplies for the ground forces in the front lines were airlifted to this strip and then sent to their destination by truck and rail. Standing in the left foreground is Captain William Turner, in charge of the Engineers in this South Korean area, who directs tedious pick and shovel work.

State Population Expected To Increase 51 Per Cent In Next Ten Years

California's population is expected to reach 14,100,000 by 1960, but the rate of growth will vary widely in different counties, it was predicted to day by Professor William A. Spurr of the Stanford University Graduate School of Business.

Dr. Spurr, professor of business statistics, spoke before the annual conference of the California County Planning Commissioners Association.

Biggest gains, he said, will occur in the counties adjoining Los Angeles and San Francisco counties, as well as in coastal resort areas such as San Diego and Monterey counties. The big cities themselves, however, will taper off.

The Central Valley area should also continue to forge ahead in population, the Stanford scholar stated. Little growth is expected, however, in the mountain and desert areas along the eastern side of the state.

Dr. Spurr expressed the opinion that the 52 per cent growth in California's population between 1940 and 1950 was not due merely to the war boom, but was nearly typical of the long-term growth of the state, which has averaged 45 per cent per decade over the past 90 years. He estimates that the gain between 1950 and 1960 will be 35 per cent, placing California close behind New York in population.

His estimate for San Mateo county, whose population is now 234,080, is a growth of 59 per cent to 373,000; San Francisco county, from 760,000 to 850,000, a jump of 19.9 per cent; Alameda county, from 733,999 to 960,000, an increase of 43.1 per cent; Marin county, from 85,000 to 116,000, an increase of 61 per cent.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS INCREASE

Traffic accidents in the rural areas of California showed an increase during the first eight months of 1950 when compared with the similar period in 1949, according to the National Automobile Club.

Xmas Seals Now Available For Overseas Mail

San Mateo county Christmas mail making its needed early start to servicemen overseas can carry the traditional, gay Tuberculosis Christmas seals.

This was assured today after the County Tuberculosis and Health Association obtained special permission for advance sales of the Tuberculosis Christmas seals for this specific purpose. The permission was extended by the state association after a number of relatives of servicemen asked to obtain the seals in this county.

The colorful seals will be sold in small numbers only to parents, relatives and friends of overseas servicemen in time for the mailing of packages, cards and letters. Mail to far Pacific outposts must be in the hands of the post office before November 1 and mail for men in the European theatre should be ready by the same time.

Persons who purchase the advance supplies of seals are asked not to use them in domestic mails before November 20 when the regular seal sale will commence.

The state association said that the special permission for this county was granted in line with national policy established in World War II and indicated that the same privilege will be extended in other counties.

Those wishing to obtain the seals for the overseas mailings can secure them at the County Headquarters, 115 South Elsworth street, San Mateo. Prepaid mail orders for the special advance sale will be filled.
